GAMEDAY

ENTRANCE

The press area in the Bryant-Denny Stadium Press Box is located on the second level on the west side of the Stadium. The entrance to the press box is through the press elevator, located near Gate 11. The elevator will be in operation three hours prior to kickoff. Media Will Call is at ticket window 8 located at the northwest corner of the end zone complex adjacent to gate 3 of Bryant-Denny Stadium.

RADIO/TELEVISION/COACHES

Located on the main press level, there is a primary live television broadcast booth and a booth available for tape-delay telecasts. This level also accommodates booths for both home and visiting radio crews and Alabama and visiting coaches' booths. Only those with appropriate passes will be admitted to these booths.

CREDENTIALS

Media credentials are available only to working members of the media who represent accredited outlets who are actively covering the event. All credential requests must be made through the Crimson Tide's online credentialing system. For further information, contact Roots Woodruff at rwoodruff@ia.ua.edu.

PHOTO DECK

This level, located in front of the main press box at Bryant-Denny Stadium, offers ample space for still photographers, network TV cameras and coaches' film crews.

SIDELINES

Alabama follows NCAA and SEC rules regarding media representatives on the sidelines.

- Credentials must be visible in order to gain access to the field.
- All photographers/videographers on the sideline must be there in a working capacity with equipment.
- Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yard lines.
- No credentials will be issued to freelance photographers, cutline writers, equipment carriers or radio station representatives, except for the two teams' broadcast originating networks.
- Affiliate TV stations are not allowed the services of a grip and credentials will not be provided for them.
- No one under 18 years of age will be issued a credential for sideline access.
- Photographers or videographers are considered working members of the media and they are to refrain from cheering or talking to players, coaches or officials.
- Photographers should contact Associate SID Roots Woodruff for further information at (205) 348-2088.
- Photographers may send photos from the Alabama Photo Room located in the southeast corner on the field level of Bryant-Denny Stadium. Contact Roots Woodruff to reserve space.
- Not conforming to any of the above listed guidelines will result in the immediate dismissal from the stadium by Event Management staff.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Complete individual and team statistics, running play-by-play, post-game coaches' quotes and game facts will be distributed to members of the working media. Press kits are provided 60 minutes prior to kickoff, or earlier upon request. Press kits include flip card, updated statistics for each team, conference statistics and game-day notes. A pregame meal will be served beginning 90 minutes before kickoff. Soft drinks will be available throughout the game.

PARKING

Media parking is located in lots nearby Bryant-Denny Stadium. Because of limited space, requests for parking should be made with credential requests. It should not be assumed that parking passes will be provided with all media credentials.

WIRELESS/ETHERNET INTERNET

Wireless internet is available in the Bryant-Denny Stadium Press Box. In addition, a limited number of Ethernet lines are also available.

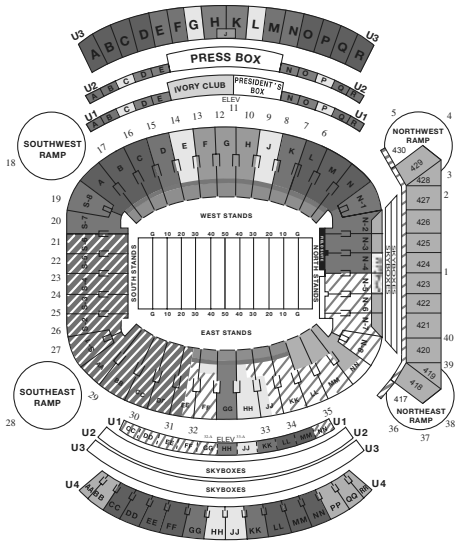

PRO SCOUTS

Despite severe space limitations, scouts of professional football teams are issued press credentials. Credentials should be requested two weeks prior to the date of the game to guarantee availability and should be requested online. For further details contact Roots Woodruff at rwoodruff@ia.ua.edu.

SATELLITE TRUCKS

Any outlet using a satellite truck must request satellite truck access and have a truck in place at least five hours prior to kickoff (example: 2 p.m. for a 7 p.m. kickoff). Satellite trucks arriving less than five hours prior to kickoff may be denied access to the stadium. Requests for parking area for satellite trucks must be made by noon Wednesday prior to Saturday games and must be confirmed through Doug Walker or Roots Woodruff. No other vehicles will be allowed to park with the satellite truck and all credentials for personnel must be included in the online request.

BRYANT-DENNY STADIUM

INTERVIEW POLICIES

HEAD COACH NICK SABAN

All interview requests for head coach Nick Saban are coordinated through Associate A.D. for Football Communications Jeff Purinton at (205) 348-3631 or jpurinton@ia.ua.edu. Coach Saban will meet with the media each Monday preceding a game at 11:45 a.m. (CT) in the Naylor Stone Media Room on the second floor of the Mal M. Moore Athletic Building. Coach Saban will participate in the SEC head coaches' weekly teleconference with the other 11 league coaches each Wednesday at 10:35 a.m. (CT). He will also meet with the media immediately following practice on Wednesday afternoon in the Naylor Stone Media Room. In addition, Coach Saban is available by request between noon and 1:00 p.m. on Tuesday through Thursday.

PLAYERS

All player interviews must be coordinated through the Alabama Media Relations Office and must be requested at least one day in advance. Several players will be available each week following Coach Saban's Monday press conference if their class schedule permits. Phone interviews should be requested through Assistant SID Josh Maxson. In addition to Monday's press luncheon, players are also available following Tuesday and Wednesday practices. Team locker rooms are off limits to media representatives at all times. Media members are not permitted to call players at any time or talk to players on Sunday, Thursdays or Fridays.

POST-GAME

The University of Alabama observes and abides by Southeastern Conference policy regarding equal access to all members of the working media. Coach Saban will conduct his post-game news conference at home games approximately 10 minutes after the game in the Media Room located on the second floor of the North End Zone complex. His news conference also can be heard in the press box. The Alabama locker room is closed. Requested players will be brought to the Media Room following Coach Saban's post-game news conference. The opposing coach will conduct his post-game news conference in the South End Zone Media Room across the tunnel from the visiting team locker room.

PRACTICE ACCESS

Alabama football practices are open to the media on Monday through Wednesday from the beginning of practice until team or group work begins. Media members should request to have their name placed on a practice pass list for admission to practices.

ALABAMA SATELLITE FEED

Video highlights of Alabama football are available via satellite each Monday during the regular season. Contact Alabama for times and satellite coordinates.

KEEP IT ROLLIN'

Alabama looks to build on last year's success.

The Alabama Crimson Tide returns 14 starters and 55 lettermen this season with 24 lettermen on offense, 28 on defense and all of the specialists. Back for the 2009 season with the Tide are All-Americans Terrence Cody and Rolando McClain along with All-SEC performers Javier Arenas, Mike Johnson and Julio Jones. Alabama is also armed with one of the nation's top freshman classes that, combined with the returning roster, gives the Crimson Tide a potent attack on both sides of the football for their run through the Southeastern Conference. →

SNAPSHOTS:
Julio Jones proved to be an astounding playmaker in 2008 with an Alabama freshman record 58 catches for 924 yards. The super sophomore gives the Crimson Tide big-play possibilities every time he touches the ball.

OFFENSE

Alabama must replace seven starters from last year's squad on offense, but a talented group is waiting in line to take their place. Senior guard Mike Johnson returns to anchor the offensive line along with right tackle Drew Davis. Both wide receivers also return with Julio Jones and Mike McCoy forming a potent combination on the outside. Both Johnson and Jones were second-team All-SEC selections a year ago while Jones was the SEC Freshman of the Year and a Freshman All-American. The Tide must replace departed three-year starting quarterback John Parker Wilson along with first-team All-American center Antoine Caldwell and Outland Trophy winning left tackle Andre Smith. Those losses only provide an opportunity for players that have patiently been waiting for their chance to shine. The offensive line will see the likes of William Vlachos, David Ross, James Carpenter, John Michael Boswell and Tyler Love step to the forefront while Greg McElroy appears to be the heir apparent at quarterback. Sophomore Mark Ingram should step into the starting spot at running back after pounding out 743 yards as a freshman in 2008. The tight end position also seems to be well tended with transfer Colin Peek, sophomore Brad Smelley, junior Preston Dial and redshirt freshman Michael Williams.

TE	Travis McCall	6-2	261	4L	33 starts; 7 catches for 52 yards in '08; played in Senior Bowl

SNAPSHOTS:

A fearsome presence roaming the middle of the Crimson Tide defense, Rolando McClain returns for his junior season as one of the elite linebackers in college football. He was a Butkus Award finalist a year ago, but has his eyes on even more in 2009.

DEFENSE

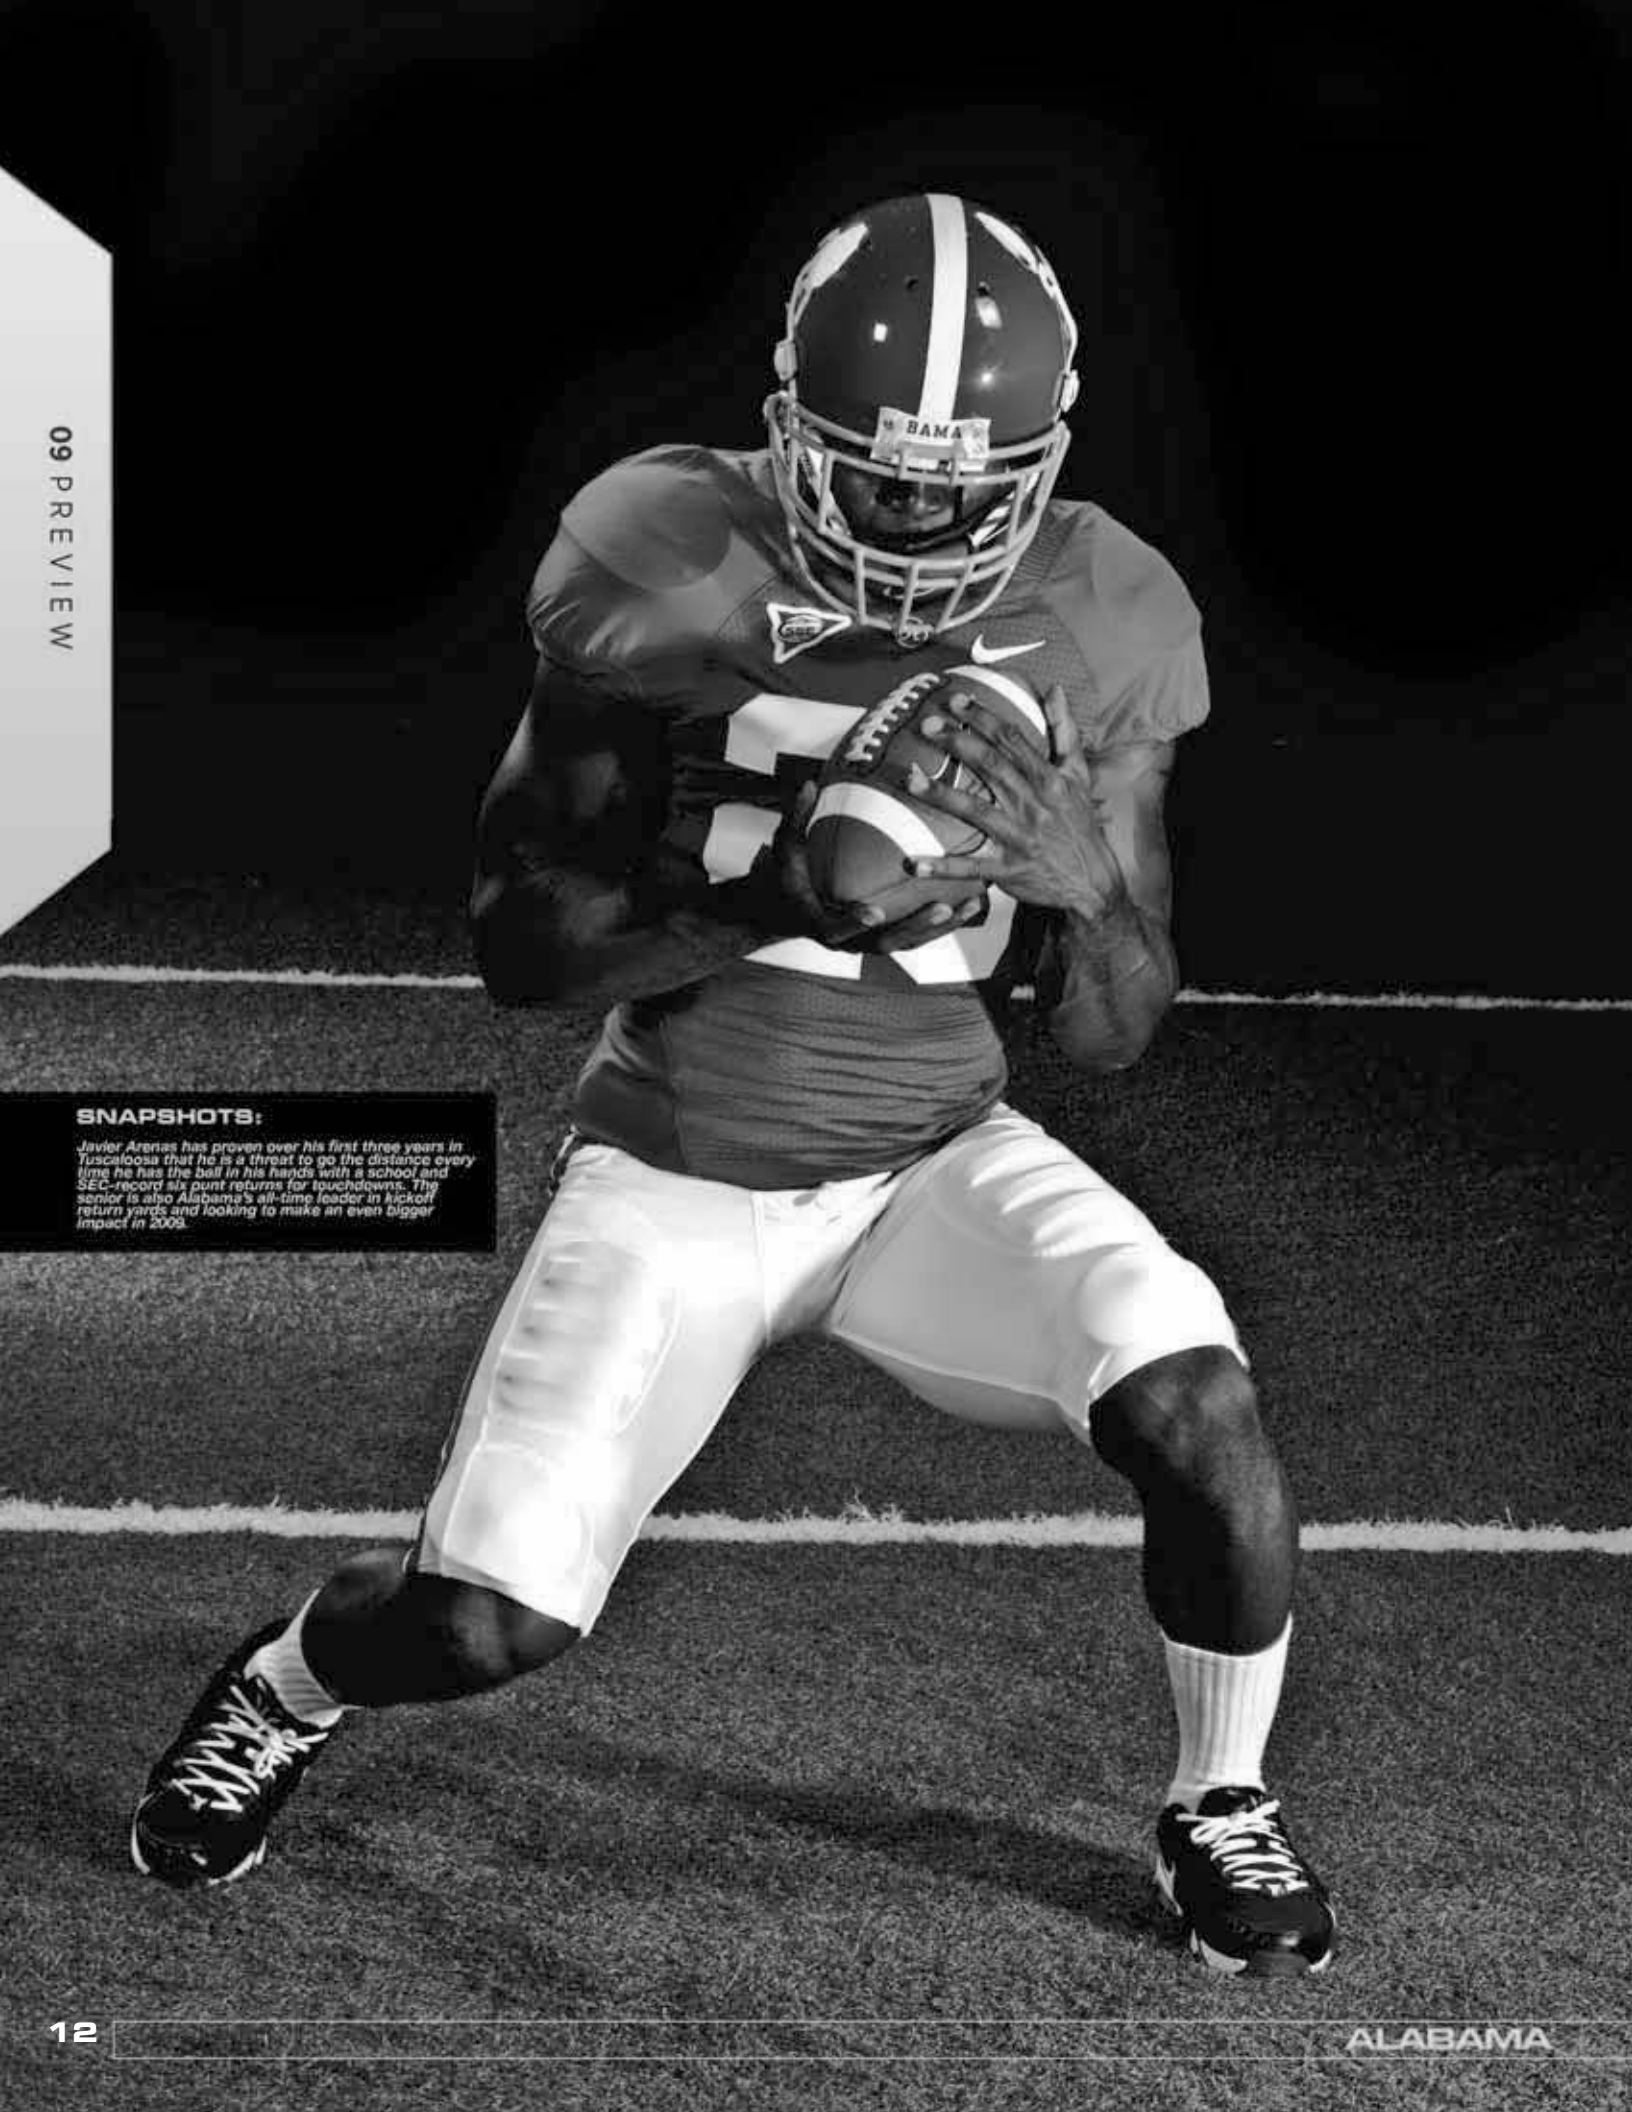

The defensive side of the ball enters the fall as possibly one of the top units in all of college football. The Crimson Tide defense, led by defensive coordinator Kirby Smart, returns nine starters from a unit that finished third nationally in total defense, second in rush defense and seventh in scoring defense. UA must replace All-American free safety Rashad Johnson and defensive end Bobby Greenwood, but experience abounds on this young and hungry defense. Alabama returns six of its front seven including all four linebackers while All-American noseguard Terrence 'Mount' Cody anchors the interior of the Tide's defensive line. Third-team Associated Press All-American Rolando McClain spearheads the Crimson Tide defense from his spot at middle linebacker. He led the team with 95 tackles, 12 tackles for loss and broke up six passes. Joining McClain in the linebacking corps is sophomore Dont'a Hightower, who was a Freshman All-American, along with senior Cory Reamer. Senior Brandon Deaderick will also hold down his defensive end spot from a year ago while former starting noseguard Lorenzo Washington moves out to the other defensive end spot. The secondary has to absorb the loss of Johnson, but returns 55 starts at the other three spots between All-SEC corner Javier Arenas, Kareem Jackson and safety Justin Woodall. The lone newcomer to the defensive backfield is sophomore safety Robby Green. The Tide's nickel and dime packages are loaded with experience as well with seniors Tyrone King and Marquis Johnson.

SNAPSHOTS:

Javier Arenas has proven over his first three years in Tuscaloosa that he is a threat to go the distance every time he has the ball in his hands with a school and SEC-record six punt returns for touchdowns. The senior is also Alabama's all-time leader in kickoff return yards and looking to make an even bigger impact in 2009.

SPECIAL TEAMS

The all-important special teams units from last season remain fully in place. Veteran Leigh Tiffin returns to handle Alabama's place-kicking and kickoff duties. Tiffin has excelled as the Tide's place-kicker over the past two seasons and enters his senior year as a candidate for the Lou Groza Award after being named a semifinalist last year. He was again ranked nationally in field goals per game (1.43) and scoring (7.57). Tiffin ranks fifth on the Tide's all-time kick-scoring list with 253 points entering the year and the two of the top three kick-scoring seasons in school history. Senior punter P.J. Fitzgerald has started every game for the Crimson Tide over the last three years and has 40 starts. He turned in the best season of his career in 2008, averaging 41.1 yards per kick with 15 inside the opponent's 20-yard line. Fitzgerald also netted a career-best 37.1 yards per boot. Senior long snapper Brian Selman is set to handle the Tide's long snapping duties again in 2009. Electrifying return man Javier Arenas is back as the deep man on kickoff and punt returns this season for Alabama. Last season, Arenas returned a school and SEC-record three punts for touchdowns while averaging 15.85 yards per punt return, which ranked sixth nationally. He is the NCAA active leader in punt returns and the Alabama record holder with six career punt returns for touchdowns. He also averaged 23.6 yards on 26 kickoff returns a year ago.

OUTLOOK:
Earl Alexander enters his junior season with plans for making an impact in the Crimson Tide's receiving corps ... has played in 25 career games with 12 catches for 161 yards ... is coming off shoulder surgery in the offseason ... a non-contact participant during spring practice ... should be 100 percent in the fall.

2008 (SOPHOMORE):
Alexander saw action in 12 games during the 2008 season, missing the Tulane and Mississippi State games ... had eight receptions for 121 yards for a 15.1 yards per catch average, which ranked third on the team ... five of Alexander's eight receptions went for first downs. Clemson: He came off the bench as a reserve wide receiver in the Crimson Tide's season opener ... did not have a catch and left the game with sprained ankle. Tulane: He did not dress due to a sprained ankle. Western Kentucky: Alexander returned to action against the Hilltoppers and caught three passes for 50 yards ... the 50 yards was a career high ... broke free for a career-long 27-yard reception early in the second quarter. Arkansas: He snared two passes for a team-high 38 yards ... his 26-yard reception on Alabama's first drive set up the Tide's first touchdown. Georgia: Alexander played but did not catch a pass in Alabama's 41-30 win at No. 3 Georgia. Kentucky: He played against the Wildcats but did not have a catch. Mississippi: Alexander played but did not have a catch. Tennessee: He played but did not record any statistics. Arkansas State: Alexander caught one pass for two yards in the Crimson Tide's 35-0 win over the Red Wolves. LSU: He caught one pass for 26 yards ... he fumbled the ball at the LSU 1-yard line and it bounced through the end zone for a touchback on Alabama's opening drive of the game ... sprained a shoulder on the play and saw limited action the remainder of the game. Mississippi State: Alexander did not play against the Bulldogs. Auburn: He returned to the field against the Tigers, but did not record any statistics. Florida: Alexander saw extensive action in the second half but did not have any receptions. Sugar Bowl vs. Utah: He caught one pass for five yards in the 2009 Allstate Sugar Bowl against the Utah Utes.

2007 (FRESHMAN):
Played in all 13 games as a reserve wide receiver and on special teams units ... made his Alabama debut in the season-opener against Western Carolina after redshirting his first season in uniform ... had four catches for 40 yards on the season ... also had four tackles, including three solo stops, to his credit on special teams ... recorded all four of his catches in the 52-6 win over WCU on Sept. 1, including his season-long of 13 yards in the first quarter ... had two special teams tackles in the win over Tennessee.

2006 (REDSHIRT):
Redshirted initial season.

NICK SABAN

ALABAMA

A MAN OF VISION WHO HAS A PROVEN RECORD OF CHAMPIONSHIP SUCCESS, UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA HEAD COACH NICK SABAN HAS BROUGHT TO ALABAMA FOOTBALL A COMMITMENT TO BUILDING THE TOTAL PROGRAM.

His uncompromising dedication to excellence in every phase of the football program is sure to yield long-term success for the Crimson Tide as evidenced by Alabama's improvement in year number two. A two-time National Coach of the Year, Saban has achieved resounding success as a head coach and has earned a reputation as an outstanding tactician, leader, organizer and motivator. Those qualities have sparked impressive turnarounds at every stop of his career. His teams have repeatedly exhibited grit, determination and resilience, often overcoming adversity to achieve victory. Saban's consistent approach and disciplined leadership is a proven recipe for success. →

Named the 27th head football coach in UA history on Wednesday, Jan. 3, 2007, Saban owns an overall record of 125-67-1 (.650) in 15 seasons as a head coach, having also led programs at Louisiana State (LSU), Michigan State and Toledo, as well as in the NFL with the Miami Dolphins. At each of his five stops, he has improved the win-loss record in his first year when compared to the previous season. Prior to Saban's arrival, those teams posted a combined average winning percentage of .387. In the first season with Saban at the helm, a .617 winning percentage was achieved.

Saban has compiled a 110-50-1 (.686) record as a college head coach after completing his first two seasons at The University of Alabama. His first UA team finished 7-6 in 2007, but the 2008 season saw a different Alabama squad take the field. Saban's influence had taken hold in Tuscaloosa, and behind a small and united senior class along with a talented group of newcomers, the Crimson Tide returned to national prominence. The Tide developed a reputation as the most physical football team in the country and methodically dominated the competition. Saban produced the largest win increase from year one to year two in school history as the Tide went from a seven-win team in 2007 to 12 wins in 2008. Alabama swept through the regular season schedule with a 12-0 record, moving to No. 1 in all of the polls and capturing the SEC Western Division Championship before falling late to Florida in a hard-fought SEC Championship Game. Their efforts earned them a trip to the Allstate Sugar Bowl for the 13th time in school history. Saban was named the 2008 Home Depot Coach of the Year at the ESPN Awards Show in Orlando and won several other national coach of the year honors including the FWAA/Eddie Robinson, AP, Sporting News, Walter Camp, and Liberty Mutual.

Lessons learned from the 2007 season, which was capped with a win over Colorado in the Independence Bowl, no doubt carried over into to spring and summer preparations for the 2008 run. The win also continued an impressive streak for Saban as he has never had a losing season in 13 years as a college head coach. Of the six losses in 2007, none was by more than seven points. Off the field, the focus on academics by Saban and his staff made an immediate impact as the 2007 team put together one of the finest fall semesters in school history. The freshman class set a solid foundation for their future at UA as they led the way with an impressive combined GPA of 3.098 in the fall. In addition to an improvement in the win-loss column from the year prior, the 2008 signing class was rated by many analysts as the best in the country.

Before arriving in Tuscaloosa, Saban's most recent college head coaching stint was a five-season run at LSU which produced a record of 48-16 (.750), one national championship (2003), two Southeastern Conference championships, three SEC West Division championships, and a 3-2 record in bowl games including two Sugar Bowl victories and a Peach Bowl win. The Tigers constructed a 28-12 (.700) record against SEC opponents under Saban's guidance. He was named the 2003 National Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and earned both the Paul W. "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year Award and the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award by the Football Writers Association of America. Saban was named SEC Coach of the Year twice (by The Birmingham News in 2001 and by the Associated Press in 2003).

Saban took over the Alabama program after serving two seasons at the helm of the Miami Dolphins. Saban's teams showed marked improvement over the unit he inherited. Taking over a team that finished 4-12 in 2004, Saban led the 2005 Dolphins to a 9-7 record, the third-biggest turnaround in the NFL that season and the second-highest victory turnaround for a Dolphins team in any nonstrike season. Most impressively, the Dolphins finished 2005 on a six-game winning streak, the longest streak in the NFL that season.

Coach Saban led the Crimson Tide back to the SEC Championship Game in 2006 for the first time since the Tide's 1999 SEC Championship.

Prior to his stint at Miami, Saban's impact on the LSU program transcended the success on the field. His commitment to building the total program, placing education first, instilling discipline and responsibility on and off the field transformed the Tigers into a force on the national stage. LSU produced 84 Academic All-SEC honorees in Saban's five seasons, including 25 members of the 2003 national championship squad. LSU's graduation rate for football players improved dramatically under his watch and two players, offensive tackle Rodney Reed (2002 and 2003) and offensive lineman Rudy Niswanger (2004) earned first-team Academic All-America honors. Linebacker Bradie James earned a postgraduate scholarship from the National Football Foundation in 2003.

Saban also spearheaded a $15 million fundraising effort to fund a new academic center for student-athletes at LSU, and he and his players were active in community involvement in the Baton Rouge area, taking part in community service projects, visiting schools to mentor children and taking time to visit local hospitals on a regular basis. More than 50 of Saban's LSU players earned their college degrees, in addition to 28 who were selected in the NFL draft, including seven in both 2004 and 2006.

"I think that there's a certain standard of excellence that when you think of Alabama, when you say Crimson Tide, I don't care what you think of, you think of a certain quality, a standard, that we want to achieve. Not only in how many games we win, but in how we go about doing it. Our process of how we go about it and doing it the right way."

NICK SABAN
ALABAMA HEAD COACH

Named head coach at LSU on Nov. 30, 1999, Saban led an immediate turnaround of a program that had suffered through seven losing seasons during the 1990s. His 48 victories over five seasons were the third-most among Division I-A head coaches during that time. Saban, Paul Dietzel and current LSU head coach Les Miles are the only coaches in the program's history to post multiple 10-win seasons. Saban, Dietzel and Bernie Moore are the only head coaches in Tiger history to win two SEC championships. Saban's 2000 Tigers rebounded from two straight losing seasons to post an 8-4 season, capped by a 31-20 win over 15th-ranked Georgia Tech in the Peach Bowl. Home victories over Tennessee, Mississippi State and Alabama highlighted the season, along with a key road win at Ole Miss.

The 2001 Tigers improved to 10-3 overall and won the program's first outright SEC title since 1986 with a 31-20 win over second-ranked Tennessee in the SEC Championship game. An impressive second half against the Volunteers was a trademark of Saban's coaching acumen as the Tigers outscored UT, 21-3, in the final half to erase a 17-10 deficit. The Tigers won the game despite the absence of starting quarterback Rohan Davey and running back LaBrandon Toefield.

Sparked by one of the most prolific offenses in the nation, a unit that averaged 451.5 yards per game, the Tigers capped the season with a 47-34 defeat of Big Ten champion Illinois in the Sugar Bowl, LSU's first victory in a New Year's Day bowl game since 1968.

Saban's philosophy of "out of yourself and into the team" paid huge dividends in 2003. The Tigers produced a 13-1 record, won their second SEC championship and earned the school's second national championship with a squad that was among the nation's most dominant on both sides of the line of scrimmage. The LSU offense scored a school-record 475 points (33.9 points per game) while holding 13-of-14 opponents to less than 20 points. LSU's defense ranked first nationally in points allowed per game (11.0) and total defense (252.0 yards per game). After a 7-1 start, LSU ended the season with six dominating victories by an average margin of 35-10. An impressive 34-13 victory over Georgia in the SEC title game paved LSU's way to an appearance in the Bowl Championship Series (BCS) Championship Game against Saban served as head coach at Michigan State from 1995-99, his second stint at the East Lansing school as he also spent 1983-87 as the Spartans' defensive coordinator/secondary coach. After playing in just one bowl game in the previous four years, Michigan State made four postseason appearances in Saban's five years at the helm. Saban led MSU to a 34-24-1 (.585) record.

In 1999, Saban led his final Spartans team to a No. 7 national ranking as MSU finished in a tie for second in the Big Ten. The Spartans defeated Notre Dame, Michigan, Ohio State and Penn State in the same year for the first time since 1965 and recorded six wins at home for the first time since the 1912 season. The Spartans' performance that year landed them a spot in the Citrus Bowl. The Stifling defense was the trademark of the 2002 Tigers. LSU posted an 8-5 record and a second consecutive New Year's Day bowl appearance. The Tigers, who faced Texas in the Cotton Bowl, held opponents to less than 275 yards per game through the season's first six games and scored a school-record 30 or more points in six straight games that season. The Tigers barely missed winning a second consecutive SEC West Division title as a last-minute comeback by Arkansas in the regular season finale prevented LSU from another appearance in the SEC Championship game. That LSU team overcame the mid-season loss of starting quarterback Matt Mauck, free-safety Damien James and Toefield in successive weeks to make a run at an SEC Western Division title.

top-ranked Oklahoma. The Tigers produced a dominant defensive effort against the Sooners in the Sugar Bowl, limiting OU to 154 yards of total offense in a 21-14 victory.

His final LSU team in 2004 overcame the loss of 13 players from the 2003 team who went on to NFL rosters, posting a 9-3 record while producing the SEC's best rushing offense (200.7 yards per game). The Tiger defense ranked third nationally during the regular season in total defense (249.9 yards per game) and passing defense (145.4 yards per game), allowing only 15.9 points per contest. Over the last six games, the Tiger defense allowed only 12 points in the second half on the way to a berth in the Capital One Bowl in Orlando against Iowa. LSU's fourth consecutive January bowl berth was a first for the Tiger program.

Spartans led the Big Ten in rushing defense (77.0 yards per game) and total defense (299.0 yards per game) while ranking fifth nationally in rushing defense and 11th in total defense. The Spartans offense averaged 31.0 points per game.

Saban was the first coach in school history to put the Spartans in postseason bowl games in each of his first three seasons as he led the Spartans to the Independence Bowl in 1995, the Sun Bowl in 1996 and the Aloha Bowl in 1997.

Before joining the Spartans, Saban spent four seasons (1991-94) as defensive coordinator with the Cleveland Browns under head coach Bill Belichick. The Browns went from allowing the most points (462) in the NFL prior to Saban's → arrival to allowing the fewest points (204) in the league in 1994, the sixth-fewest points surrendered in NFL history at the time. In each of Saban's four years guiding the Browns' defense, they never permitted an average of more than 19.2 points per game. He built a reputation as one of the finest defensive coaches in the league and also was heavily involved in the team's player personnel and scouting process.

Saban's first head coaching position came at the University of Toledo in 1990, as he guided the Rockets to a record of 9-2 that year, finishing as co-champions of the Mid-American Conference. The Rockets ranked among the NCAA leaders in both total defense (12th at 284.8 yards) and scoring defense (16th at 16.2 points), and missed posting an undefeated record by a mere five points.

Saban joined Toledo after serving as secondary coach with the Houston Oilers for two seasons under Jerry Glanville (1988-89), his first NFL coaching position. He quickly made an impact on the Oilers' defense, as the team's secondary tied for fourth in the AFC in 1988 with 21 interceptions and tied for second in the conference in 1989 with 22.

In his first stint at Michigan State, Saban served as secondary coach and defensive coordinator under George Perles from 1983 through 1987. Saban played an integral part in helping the Spartans to three postseason bowl appearances, including a Big Ten championship in 1987 and a 20-17 victory over Southern California in the 1988 Rose Bowl. Michigan State led the nation in rushing defense in 1987, allowing only 61.2 yards per game, and ranked second in scoring defense, permitting just 12.4 points.

A native of Fairmont, W.Va., Saban is a 1973 graduate of Kent State University where he earned a bachelor's degree in business. He earned a master's degree in sports administration from Kent State in 1975. Born Oct. 31, 1951, Saban and his wife, the former Terry Constable, have two children, Nicholas and Kristen.

Saban co-authored "Tiger Turnaround" in 2001, a book documenting his first two years as head coach at LSU, and co-authored "How Good Do You Want to Be" in 2005, a book that offers real life principles for success at work and at home.

In addition to work as fund-raisers for LSU's Student-Athlete Academic Center, the Sabans supported several charitable and civic projects in Louisiana. The largest of those efforts was with the Children's Miracle Network, for which Terry and Nick raised more than $100,000 per year for children.

At Michigan State, the Saban's started the Nick's Kids Fund, which they have continued in Tuscaloosa, a vibrant example of their continuing concern for disadvantaged children. Since Nick and Terry arrived in Tuscaloosa, more than $1 million has been distributed to approximately 100 charities through the Nick's Kids Fund. In winning the 2008 Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award, Saban was awarded a $50,000 gift at the A-Day Game, which he designated for Nick's Kids, as well as an additional $20,000 gift for the University of Alabama scholarship fund.

"When we travel throughout the state we recognize names and faces who share the same goal - to make the University of Alabama the very best it can be in every regard - on the field, in the classroom and in the eyes of the nation one day at a time. Thank you to all of the supporters and the University of Alabama community. Roll Tide!"

-TERRY SABAN

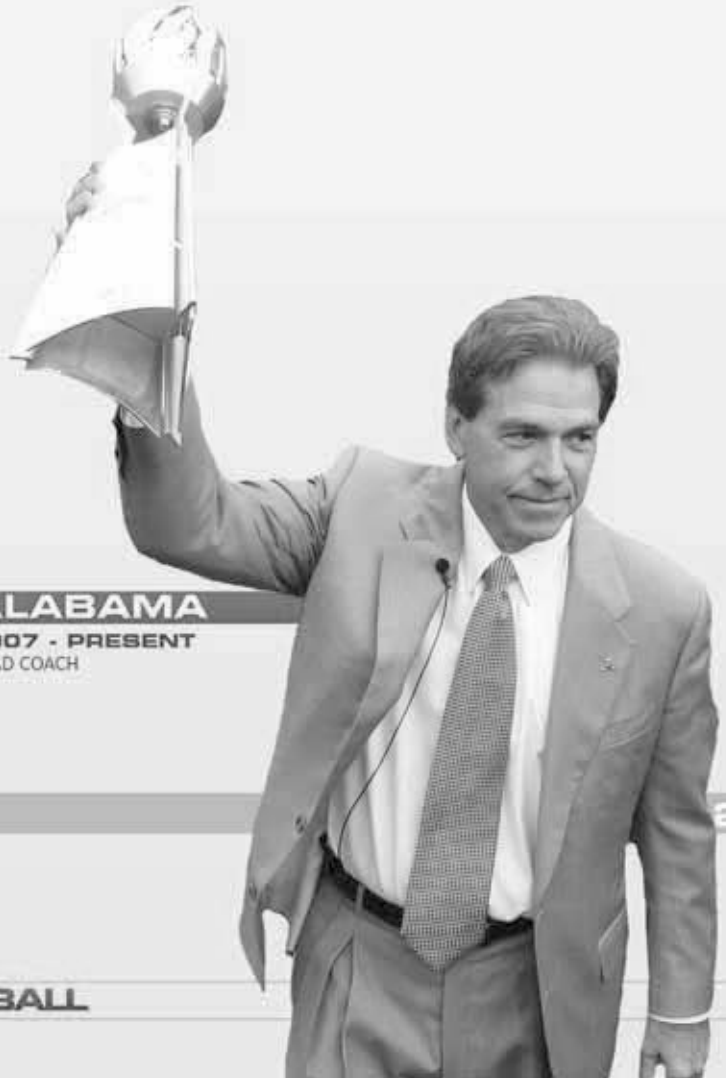

NICK'S KIDS

Nick's Kids Fund has raised approximately $1 million dollars for local charities in the past two-plus years thanks to the success of the annual Nick's Kids golf tournament, speaking engagements and donations. Since the Sabans arrived in Tuscaloosa, close to 100 charities and organizations have received aid through the organization. Nick and Terry started the Nick's Kids Fund when they were at Michigan State to honor his father's (Nick Saban, Sr.) legacy of helping children.

In June of 2008, the Saban's announced a $1 million gift to benefit Alabama's first-generation scholarship program. The gift has a special meaning to the Sabans as both Nick and Terry were both first-generation graduates. The University of Alabama has included the Sabans' donation in a scholarship challenge program, which could help double or triple the total contribution to first-generation scholarships.

Terry Saban plays a vital role in many community outreach programs. She personally collected money on the Quad before 2007's A-Day game for the Enterprise tornado relief fund. Prior to the 2008 A-Day game, Terry helped collect money for the university's libraries. In June of this year, Nick and Terry pledged $1 million to the university's scholarship fund and earmarked it for first-generation college students. Terry also plays an important role in the planning of many of the events for causes including the Nick's Kids Fund. Her eagerness to give back and her tireless devotion to help others is what makes Terry Saban one of the most admired members of the Crimson Tide family.

BURTON BURNS

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH / RUNNING BACKS

Burton Burns is in his third season with the Crimson Tide football program as associate head coach and running backs coach. The New Orleans native is regarded as one of the best in college football and was named the FootballScoop Running Backs Coach of the Year following the 2008 season.

Burns developed one of the nation's strongest running games last season as Alabama finished third in the SEC and 30th nationally with an average of 184.6 rushing yards per game. Junior Glen Coffee, a first-team All-SEC selection, led the way with 1,383 yards on the ground. That single-season total tied for second in school history and was third in the conference. In addition, Mark Ingram was eighth in the SEC in rushing (728 yards), captured Freshman All-SEC honors and set a Crimson Tide rookie record with 12 rushing touchdowns.

In his first year at Alabama, Burns helped first-year tailback Terry Grant set school records for rushing yards (891) and touchdowns (8) in a season. Grant was a three-time SEC Freshman of the Week honoree, and was named to the SEC All-Freshman team as well as the Sporting News Freshman All-American team (honorable mention).

An assistant coach at Clemson University for eight seasons before coming to Alabama, Burns was a major factor in producing six of the top 10 offenses in Clemson history as running backs coach for the Tigers. Burns tutored star runners such as 2005 ACC Rookie of the Year James Davis, 2006 freshman record-setter C.J. Spiller, Reggie Merriweather, Travis Zachery and Duane Coleman at Clemson and former New York Jet Jerald Sowell at Tulane. In 2006, Davis led the Tigers with 1,187 rushing yards on 203 carries and scored 17 touchdowns, while Spiller had 938 rushing yards and 10 touchdowns. The Tigers averaged 5.7 yards per carry during the '06 regular season.

Burns spent eight seasons with head coach Tommy Bowden at Clemson after a four-year stint at Tulane that concluded with a 12-0 season in 1998. Over 14 seasons as a college assistant coach, Burns has regularly produced versatile running backs that have been effective in every phase of the game. His players have proven to be equally effective as pass catchers, as well as in the running game.

Burns, 56, spent nine seasons as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Saint Augustine High School in New Orleans, La., before joining Bowden's staff at Tulane. Burns helped lead Saint Augustine to district titles in 1987, 1992 and 1993, his second stint at the school. Burns' first experience as a coach also was at Saint Augustine, where he served as an assistant from 1977-79 and helped the school win three more district championships on the way to consecutive state titles in 1978-79. Burns also coached at New Orleans' Booker T. Washington High School in 1980 before a five-year stint as an assistant coach at Southern University in Baton Rouge from 1981-85.

As a player, Burns played fullback (1971-75) at the University of Nebraska under head coach Tom Osborne. A member of three Cornhuskers teams that won at least nine games, Burns participated in the Orange Bowl, Cotton Bowl and Sugar Bowl as a player. He earned a bachelor's degree in education from Nebraska in 1976. Burns is married to the former Connie Winder. The couple has three daughters (Amber, Christy, Erin) and a son (Damon).

CURT CIGNETTI

WIDE RECEIVERS / RECRUITING COORDINATOR

Curt Cignetti joined the Crimson Tide football coaching staff in February of 2007 as receivers coach and recruiting coordinator. The recently completed 2008 and 2009 signing classes were listed by most recruiting analysts among the nation's best.

In his second year at the Capstone, Cignetti coached wide receiver Julio Jones as he established school freshman records for receiving yards (924) and receptions (58). Jones was recognized as the AP Freshman of the Year in the SEC and also earned Freshman All-America honors. The true freshman had an outstanding performance in the SEC Championship Game against Florida with five catches for 124 yards.

Cignetti coached D.J. Hall in 2007 as he established Alabama records for career receiving yards and receptions. Hall, who also set the school mark for single season receptions in 2007, was one of three SEC receivers to reach the 1,000-yard mark that year.

Entering his 27th season in the college coaching ranks, Cignetti spent the previous seven seasons as tight ends coach, recruiting coordinator and quarterbacks coach at North Carolina State. He served as recruiting coordinator while coaching tight ends (from 2000-02 and 2005-06) and quarterbacks (2003-04). In 2005, Cignetti was ranked among the nation's top 25 recruiters by Rivals.com. Among the players Cignetti coached during his tenure with the Wolfpack was the ACC Player of the Year, quarterback Philip Rivers in 2003. Rivers set ACC records for passing yards (4,491) and touchdown passes (34) while leading the country in completion percentage (72.0) and passing efficiency (170.5). He also coached first team All-ACC tight end Sean Berton in 2002 and second team All-ACC tight ends TJ Williams (2005) and Anthony Hill (2006).

Prior to working with the Wolfpack, Cignetti spent six seasons (1994-99) on the staff at the University of Pittsburgh. As recruiting coordinator during his six seasons at Pitt, he coached tight ends for the Panthers from 1994-96 and in 1999, and coached the quarterbacks in 1997-98. Among Cignetti's future NFL players at Pittsburgh were quarterback Pete Gonzalez, tight end John Jones and tight end Kirk McMullen. Cignetti was quarterbacks coach at Temple from 1989-92, coached quarterbacks at Rice from 1986-88 and coached quarterbacks and receivers at Davidson in 1985. Cignetti began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Pittsburgh in 1983-84.

As a player, Cignetti played quarterback at West Virginia University from 1979-82. During his playing career, Cignetti played on teams that made consecutive bowl appearances in 1981-82 (1981 Peach Bowl and 1982 Gator Bowl). He was honored with the Lewis D. Meisel Award for academic excellence and the A.C. "Whitey" Gwynn Award for character while playing for the Mountaineers.

Cignetti hails from a family that has deep coaching roots. His father, Frank, was head coach at West Virginia and Indiana University of Pennsylvania, racking up 199 career victories before retiring at the conclusion of the 2005 season. Curt's brother, Frank Jr., is also a veteran of the college coaching ranks and is currently the offensive coordinator at Pittsburgh.

Cignetti earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from West Virginia. He is married to the former Manette Lawer and the couple has three children: Curtis John, Carly Ann and Natalie.

BO DAVIS

DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

Bo Davis is in his third season with the Crimson Tide football staff as defensive line coach. Davis joined the Alabama staff after serving the 2006 season as an assistant strength and conditioning coach and assistant defensive line coach with the Miami Dolphins under Nick Saban.

The Alabama defensive line saw great improvement in 2008, which helped the Crimson Tide develop into one of the top defensive units overall nationally. Davis added Terrence Cody to the starting lineup at noseguard and the junior was named an All-American in his first season. Alabama ranked second nationally in terms of rush defense, allowing just 74.1 yards per game on the ground. UA also ranked among the top seven in the country in total defense (263.5 ypg) and scoring defense (14.3 ppg).

Under Davis' watch in 2007, senior defensive end Wallace Gilberry put together one of the finest seasons in Alabama history. Gilberry earned first team All-SEC status, leading the league in tackles for loss (27) and finishing second in sacks (10).

Davis, 38, has a deep history in Southeastern Conference football. Prior to his stint with the Dolphins, Davis spent four years (2002-05) as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at LSU under Saban and current Tigers' head coach Les Miles.

A former All-SEC defensive lineman for LSU in the early 1990's, Davis joined the LSU strength and conditioning staff as assistant coordinator in June of 2002. He joined the LSU staff after a stint at North Shore High School in Galena Park, Texas, where he served as an assistant football coach from 1997-2002. Davis played football at LSU from 1990 to 1992, earning second team All-SEC honors as a noseguard in 1992. He finished his LSU career with 90 tackles, one sack and one fumble recovery. As a senior in 1992, Davis started all 11 games at noseguard, recording 66 tackles, including four tackles for loss.

A native of Magee, Miss., Davis graduated from LSU in 1993 and he then served as a graduate assistant with the LSU strength and conditioning program from 1995-1997. Davis and his wife, Omeika, have a son (Bo) and a daughter (Juliana).

JIM MCELWAIN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR / QUARTERBACKS COACH

Jim McElwain was named Alabama's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach by head coach Nick Saban on January 30, 2008 and his balanced offensive attack helped the Crimson Tide to a 12-2 mark in year one.

McElwain's 2008 offense proved to be one of the nation's most efficient and productive units. Alabama finished fifth in the SEC in scoring offense (30.1 ppg) and 35th nationally after ranking 64th (seventh in the SEC) in that category in 2007 with an average of 27.1 ppg. In addition, quarterback John Parker Wilson saw his pass efficiency rating improve from eighth to fifth in the SEC and he was named a Johnny Unitas Award finalist under McElwain's guidance.

McElwain spent the 2006 season in the NFL as quarterbacks coach for the Oakland Raiders and served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Fresno State in 2007. He made an immediate impact in his first season at Fresno State as he helped lead the Bulldogs to a 9-4 record, a significant turnaround from the previous year in which Fresno State posted a 4-8 mark.

The Fresno State offense under McElwain averaged 419.5 yards per game (38th nationally) and 32.9 points per game (32nd) last season. That was a significant increase from the 2006 campaign when the Bulldogs averaged 338.2 yards per game in total offense and 23.0 points per game in terms of scoring offense. After Fresno State rolled up 571 yards of total offense and defeated Georgia Tech 40-28 in the Humanitarian Bowl, McElwain moved up to No. 18 in the Rivals.com national power rankings (offensive coaches). His quarterback, Tom Brandstater, finished 2007 with a passing efficiency rating of 140.5, which ranked 23rd in the country. Brandstater showed remarkable improvement under McElwain's watch as he had posted a pass efficiency rating of 106.7 (89th) the previous year.

McElwain served as the assistant head coach, receivers coach and special teams coach at Michigan State from 2003-05. The 2003 team reached the Alamo Bowl behind a receiving corps that set school records for receptions (312) and yards (3,510). He coached 2004 All-America punter Brandon Fields and kicker Dave Rayner, who led the Big Ten Conference in scoring. In 2005, five Spartan receivers had at least 28 receptions and the group combined to a set another school record with 24 touchdown catches.

Prior to his stint at Michigan State, McElwain spent three seasons (2000-02) at Louisville as the receivers coach and special teams coach as the Cardinals earned bowl bids in each of those three seasons. He coached four first team All-Conference USA selections at Louisville and also tutored three of the Cardinals' all-time leading receivers, including Deion Branch and Arnold Jackson.

From 1995-99, McElwain was the offensive coordinator, quarterbacks and receivers coach at Montana State. Under his direction, quarterback Rob Compson threw for nearly 7,000 career yards and a school-record 54 touchdowns. McElwain also coached the Bobcats' all-time leading receiver Chip Hobbs, who caught 144 career passes for 2,060 yards and 18 TDs. Montana State led the Big Sky Conference in scoring in 1998, averaging 31.6 points per game.

McElwain was at Eastern Washington from 1985-94 in a variety of capacities, starting as a graduate assistant and working his way up to quarterbacks and receivers coach. The Eagles made two NCAA Division I-AA playoff appearances (1992 and 1995) and earned a share of the Big Sky Championship in 1992. McElwain coached EWU's all-time leading receiver, Tony Brooks (2,969 career yards), who earned third team AP All-America honors in 1993.

An all-state quarterback at Missoula (Montana) Sentinel High School, McElwain played quarterback at Eastern Washington from 1980-83 and earned his degree in Education from EWU in 1984. He and his wife, Karen, have three children, JoHanna, Elizabeth and Jerret.

JOE PENDRY

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH / OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

A veteran coach with impressive credentials from the pro and college ranks, Joe Pendry is in his third year at Alabama serving as assistant head coach and offensive line coach.

Pendry's experience was the key in the development of what many analysts regarded as the nation's best offensive line in 2008. The group of Andre Smith, Mike Johnson, Antoine Caldwell, Marlon Davis and Drew Davis only missed a total of four starts between the five of them and cleared the way for one of the nation's top rushing attacks. Smith won the Outland Trophy and was a consensus All-American while Caldwell earned consensusAll-America honors. Johnson was a second-team All-SEC selection.

In 2007, Pendry saw Smith earn first team All-SEC honors and win the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the league's top offensive lineman. In addition, Caldwell was a second team All-SEC selection playing all three positions on the offensive line.

With 19 years of NFL coaching experience, Pendry joined head coach Nick Saban's staff in January of 2007. Pendry has worked with six different NFL clubs and has been to the playoffs 11 times in his career. His most recent stop was with the Houston Texans, where he served as offensive line coach and offensive coordinator in 2004 and 2005. Prior to that, Pendry worked for three years under Dom Capers at the Carolina Panthers from 1995-97. Carolina posted a 27-23 overall record with one NFC championship game appearance over those three seasons. He has served as an offensive coordinator with four NFL teams (Houston, Carolina, Buffalo and Kansas City).

A native of Matheny, W.Va., Pendry was a three-sport star at Oceana High School, excelling in football, basketball and track. He was an all-state selection in football and basketball and was the West Virginia High School Lineman of the Year in 1964. Pendry played two seasons at West Virginia University (1965-66) before a career-ending injury allowed him to become a student coach (1967-68) before becoming a graduate assistant coach in 1969. He remained on the WVU staff as freshman coach (1970), wide receivers coach (1971-72), offensive line coach (1973-74) and offensive coordinator (1976-77).

Pendry also had collegiate coaching stints at Kansas State (1975), Pittsburgh (1978-79), and Michigan State (1980-81) before moving to the professional ranks. He was an assistant coach with the USFL's Philadelphia Stars (1982-83) before becoming head coach of the Pittsburgh Maulers in 1984. In 1985, he began his NFL coaching career, where he spent 19 seasons.

Pendry is a 1969 graduate of West Virginia University with a degree in physical education. Pendry and his wife, the former Sandi Barbera, have two children, Joe Jr., and Jill Koeppel, and four grandchildren.

KIRBY SMART

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR / SECONDARY COACH

Kirby Smart is in his third season with the Alabama football staff as secondary coach and second as defensive coordinator. A former standout defensive back and scholar-athlete at Georgia, Smart brings an impressive blend of college and pro coaching experience to the Crimson Tide.

The Alabama defense was rated among the nation's best in 2008. The Tide finished third in total defense (263.5 ypg) and seventh in scoring defense (14.3 ppg) in the final NCAA stats. Senior captain Rashad Johnson earned All-America honors as well as first-team All-SEC recognition after intercepting five passes, including two for touchdowns. Alabama recorded 15 interceptions in 2008 and brought back four of those for scores.

Under Smart's guidance in 2007, Johnson led the SEC with six interceptions and earned first team All-SEC honors along with cornerback Simeon Castille. A third member of the Alabama secondary, Kareem Jackson, was honored at the end of the season as a second team Sporting News Freshman All-American.

Smart joined the Tide after spending the 2006 season as safeties coach with head coach Nick Saban and the NFL's Miami Dolphins. Prior to his stint with the Dolphins, Smart spent six years on the collegiate level with Georgia (1999 and 2005), LSU (2004), Florida State (2002-03), and Valdosta State (2000-01).

As the running backs coach at Georgia in 2005, the Bulldogs averaged 162.2 yards per game, the third best mark in the SEC. Smart spent the 2004 season as defensive backs coach under Saban at LSU, where he tutored two NFL draft picks: Corey Webster (2nd round, New York Giants) and Travis Daniels (4th round, Miami Dolphins). That season, the Tigers allowed 157.2 passing yards per game, which ranked second in the SEC and fifth nationally.

Smart was a graduate assistant coach under Bobby Bowden at Florida State in 2002-03 and served as defensive coordinator (2001) and defensive backs (2000) coach at Valdosta State. He began his coaching career as an administrative assistant at Georgia in 1999.

As a player, Smart was a four-year lettermen at defensive back for the Bulldogs, where he was a first team All-SEC pick as a senior. He finished his career with 13 interceptions, fourth in Georgia annals, and led the Bulldogs with six interceptions in 1997 and five in 1998. A four-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, Smart earned his undergraduate degree in finance from Georgia and his master's degree from Florida State in 2003.

A native of Bainbridge, Ga., Smart is married to the former Mary Beth Lycett of McDonough, Ga. The couple became the proud parents of twins (Weston and Julia) on February 8, 2008.

SAL SUNSERI

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH / LINEBACKERS COACH

Sal Sunseri, a former All-American linebacker at Pittsburgh, joined the Alabama coaching staff in January of 2009 after serving as the defensive line coach with the NFL's Carolina Panthers. As a member of the Crimson Tide staff, he will hold the title of assistant head coach for defense and work with the linebackers.

Sunseri's defensive line with the Panthers was regarded as one of the best in the NFL. Defensive end Julius Peppers, defensive end Mike Rucker and defensive tackle Kris Jenkins earned Pro Bowl honors during Sunseri's tenure. He produced at least one Pro Bowl defensive lineman in five of six seasons as defensive line coach. The Panthers were among the top 10 in the NFL in terms of fewest yards allowed in four of his seven seasons and made three playoff appearances.

Sunseri came to Carolina as a defensive assistant in 2002 and took over as defensive line coach in 2003. It was a seamless transition as the Panthers defensive line remained one of the best in the NFL in 2003 under Sunseri. Carolina ranked eighth in overall defense, 11th against the run and seventh in sacks per pass play. The defensive line accounted for 32.5 of the team's 40 total sacks and also produced a pair of Pro Bowl players in Jenkins and Rucker.

The Panthers' defensive line has provided more than its share of superlatives. In 2006, the Panthers ranked seventh in yards allowed and seventh in sacks per play as two members of the starting unit, Peppers and Jenkins, were selected to the NFC Pro Bowl squad. In 2005, Carolina finished third in yards allowed, fourth against the rush and fifth in sacks per pass play. In 2008, Carolina ranked ninth in the NFL and fifth in the NFC in sacks (37.0) while also ranking 12th in the NFL and sixth in the NFC in scoring defense (20.6 ppg). Peppers earned his fourth trip to the Pro Bowl and established a new career-high with 14.5 sacks.

Prior to his time at Carolina, Sunseri worked as the linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at Michigan State in 2001 after spending 2000 at Louisiana State under head coach Nick Saban in the same capacity. He coached at Alabama A&M in 1998 and 1999 as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach following three seasons from 1995-97 at the University of Louisville as linebackers coach.

Working his way up the coaching ladder, Sunseri spent one year each at Illinois State as defensive coordinator in 1994 and Iowa Wesleyan as assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and special teams coach in 1993. He broke into coaching at his alma mater, Pittsburgh, in 1985 and coached defensive line and linebackers before being named assistant head coach in 1992.

Sunseri began his career at the University of Pittsburgh in 1978 as a walk-on and ended it as a team captain and consensus All-American as a senior in 1981. A three-year starter at linebacker, he helped the Panthers to a combined record of 33-3 and anchored a defensive unit that led the NCAA in total defense in 1980 and 1981. He was the defensive MVP in the 1982 Senior Bowl and was drafted in the 10th round by the Pittsburgh Steelers but had his pro career cut short by a knee injury in training camp. He received a bachelor's degree in communications from Pittsburgh in 1982.

Sunseri is married to the former Roxann Evans, who was a varsity gymnast at Pittsburgh. The couple has two daughters, Jaclyn and Ashlyn, and two sons, Santino (who is a redshirt freshman quarterback at Pittsburgh) and Vinnie.

BOBBY WILLIAMS

TIGHT ENDS COACH AND SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Bobby Williams is in his second season in Tuscaloosa after being hired as Alabama's tight ends coach and special teams coordinator in January of 2008. A veteran coach with both college and NFL experience, Williams joins Nick Saban's coaching staff for the fourth time in his career as they have worked together previously at Michigan State, LSU and the Miami Dolphins.

In year one at the Capstone, Williams led a pair of senior tight ends to the best seasons of their careers. Nick Walker made 11 starts and was second on the team in receiving with 32 catches, 324 yards and two touchdowns. Travis McCall started 12 games and was one of the team's top blockers, clearing the way for an outstanding ground game. McCall, who caught seven passes for 52 yards, represented Alabama in the Senior Bowl.

The special teams in 2008 were a big weapon for the Tide under Williams. Javier Arenas broke two punt returns for touchdowns and set the school record for career punt return yardage and punt return touchdowns. Place-kicker Leigh Tiffin, a Lou Groza Award semifinalist, was 20-of-29 on field goals and punter P.J. Fitzgerald had a career-best average of 41.1 yards per punt with 15 inside the 20.

Williams spent the 2005 and 2006 seasons as the running backs coach with the Dolphins. In his first season, Miami averaged 118.6 yards rushing per contest, the second-best figure by the team over the previous 21 years (1985-05). Ronnie Brown led the team with 907 yards rushing, second-most among NFL rookies in 2005 and the second-highest total ever by a Dolphins rookie. Brown followed that up with 1,008 yards in 2006, which marked the first time a player in the franchise had rushed for 900 or more yards in each of his first two seasons.

Williams served as the associate head coach/wide receivers coach at LSU in 2004 where he coached a pair of future NFL first round picks in Craig Davis and Dwayne Bowe. Both Davis and Bowe ranked in the top ten in the SEC in receptions per game and receiving yards per game that season.

Prior to his one-year stint in Baton Rouge, Williams spent one season (2003) as the wide receivers coach with the Detroit Lions. With the Lions, rookie Charles Rogers, who played for Williams at Michigan State, caught 22 passes for 243 yards and three touchdowns through just five games before an injury cut short his rookie campaign. At the time, Rogers' receiving total tied for 11th in the NFC and was third among NFL rookies.

Williams followed Saban as head coach at Michigan State, and served in that post from 2000-02. He led the Spartans to a victory over Florida in the 2000 Citrus Bowl after the 1999 season, in his first game as the school's head coach. He also guided Michigan State to a 7-5 mark in 2001, his second full season as the team's head coach, one which culminated with a victory over Fresno State in the Silicon Valley Football Classic, as he became the first coach in Michigan State history to lead his team to victories in his first two bowl appearances.

He previously was an assistant on the Spartans staff from 1990-99, during which time he tutored the running backs, the final five years under Saban. Michigan State backs produced nine individual 1,000- yard rushing performances in Williams' ten years in that post, a list which includes T.J. Duckett, Atlanta's first-round draft choice in 2002.

Williams got his start in the coaching profession as running backs/defensive backs coach at Ball State from 1983-84. He followed that with a five-year stop (1985-89) as offensive backfield coach at Eastern Michigan before heading off to East Lansing.

Williams is a 1982 graduate of Purdue where he earned his degree in general management and was a four-year letterman for the Boilermakers. He started his career at running back before moving to the secondary and starting in his final three seasons. A tri-captain as a senior in 1981, Williams was a part of three Purdue bowl teams as a player. He then served one year (1982) as a graduate assistant with the Boilermakers.

A native of St. Louis, Mo., Williams and his wife, Sheila, have a daughter, Nataly, and a son, Nicholas.

JAMES WILLIS

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH / LINEBACKERS COACH

James Willis was hired at the University of Alabama in January of 2009 and will serve as associate head coach and work with the linebackers. Willis, a seven-year NFL veteran, joins the Crimson Tide after serving as an assistant coach at Auburn.

Willis spent the last three years as the linebackers coach at Auburn. The Tigers ranked No. 7 nationally in scoring defense in 2006 and followed that up with a No. 6 ranking in 2007 and a No. 14 ranking in scoring defense last season. Auburn appeared in two bowls during his tenure – the 2007 AT&T Cotton Bowl and the 2007 Chick-fil-A Bowl. The Tigers defeated Nebraska 17-14 in the Cotton Bowl and defeated Clemson 23-20 in overtime in the Chick-fil-A Bowl. Willis also coached a pair of Freshman All-Americans at linebacker at Auburn in Tray Blackmon (2006) and Spencer Pybus (2008).

Prior to his stint at Auburn, Willis coached the linebackers at Temple (2005) and Rhode Island (2004-05). He coached Rhode Island linebacker Teddy Gibbons to team MVP and All-Atlantic 10 Conference honors in 2004. In 2003, Willis was a defensive graduate assistant at Auburn after working as a student assistant the previous two years at AU.

Willis spent seven seasons in the NFL and one season in the XFL. He began his professional career with the Green Bay Packers (1993-94) before making the move to Philadelphia (1995-98) where he was a three-year starter for the Eagles. His final NFL season was in 1999 with the Seattle Seahawks and his playing career concluded in 2001 with the Birmingham Thunderbolts of the XFL.

As a collegiate player, Willis was a three-year starter at Auburn (1990-92). He recorded 344 career tackles and was a member of the 1990 Peach Bowl team. Willis was a first team All-SEC selection in 1992 and was the SEC Co-Defensive Freshman of the Year in 1990. A fifth round draft pick by Green Bay following his junior season, Willis returned to earn his degree in Adult Education from Auburn.

Willis was born in Huntsville, Ala. and played high school football at J.O. Johnson High School where he was a Parade All-American as a linebacker. He and his wife, Shalane are the proud parents of daughter Jade and sons Jalen and Jordan James.

SCOTT COCHRAN

HEAD FOOTBALL STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

The booming voice you hear leading a pre-practice stretch or encouraging a Crimson Tide player to finish a workout session strong is that of Head Football Strength and Conditioning Coach Scott Cochran. The high-energy coach joined the Alabama staff in 2007 after spending three seasons with the New Orleans Hornets as an assistant strength coach. He received one of the highest honors in his field when he was named the 2008 Samson Strength & Conditioning Coach of the Year as featured in American Football Quarterly following Alabama's 12-2 season a year ago.

Cochran's duties with the Hornets included assisting with the exercise and strength conditioning programs to help players achieve and maintain optimal fitness throughout the NBA season. With the Hornets, he coached NBA standouts Chris Paul, Baron Davis and David West.

Prior to joining the Hornets staff, Cochran worked for his alma mater, Louisiana State, as an assistant strength coach in 2003 (13-1, BCS National Champions) and 2004 (9-3, Capital One Bowl). He was a graduate assistant in Baton Rouge from 2001-03. Cochran returned to LSU after starting his career in the strength and conditioning field at University Laboratory High School in Baton Rouge, La. He held that position from 1998-2001 and then went back to LSU as a graduate assistant for all sports from 2001-03. Cochran was then hired on to the full-time staff for the 2003-04 season.

A native of New Orleans, Cochran received a bachelor's degree in kinesiology from LSU in 2001 and added a master's degree in sports management from LSU in 2003. Cochran was born on March 21, 1979, and is married to the former Cissy Schepens. They have a son, Beau, and a daughter, Savannah.

MIKE VOLLMAR

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR/FOOTBALL

Mike Vollmar was hired as associate athletics director for football on May 22, 2008. Vollmar's primary role at Alabama is to oversee the administration and operation of the football program. Before joining the Crimson Tide, he spent 12 years as an assistant athletics director and director of football operations at Michigan State. Vollmar had the opportunity to serve on the 2010 Citi BCS National Championship Game Advisory Committee earlier this year.

Vollmar's duties at Michigan State included internal and external operations of the football program. He also managed the football operating budget, team travel, camps and the construction of a new $12 million football facility. He served as the liaison between Michigan State and NFL scouts as well as high school coaches. Vollmar serves on the AFCA National Committee for Directors of Football Operations and the Duffy Daugherty Memorial Award Committee.

In 1996, then-Michigan State head coach Nick Saban called on Vollmar to serve as the assistant athletic director of football operations. During Vollmar's tenure at MSU, he saw the Spartans appear in six bowl games ('96 Sun, '97 Aloha, '00 Citrus, '01 Silicon Valley, '03 Alamo and '07 Champs Sports). During Vollmar's stay with the Spartans, they compiled a 10-2 record in 1999 which included a win over Florida in the Citrus Bowl.

Prior to joining MSU, Vollmar spent five years at Syracuse where the Orangemen posted a record of 41-15-1. He served as recruiting coordinator from 1991-93 and director of football and recruiting operations from 1994-96 under Paul Pasqualoni. Four players recruited during that time were named to Syracuse's All-Century team, including Donovan McNabb, Donovan Darius, Kevin Johnson and Kevin Abrams. Syracuse won three bowl games in his five years ('92 Hall of Fame, '93 Fiesta and '96 Gator Bowls).

Vollmar also spent three seasons as assistant recruiting coordinator and in athletic administration under the late Bo Schembechler and Gary Moeller at the University of Michigan (1988-90). The Wolverines went 28-7-1 during his stay in Ann Arbor, winning three Big Ten Championships, with two Rose Bowl appearances and a Gator Bowl appearance. Mike's father, James, was a running back at Michigan from 1956-58.

Vollmar participated in track and field as a pole vaulter at Siena Heights University in Adrian, Mich. He received a bachelor's degree in history with a minor in speech communication from Siena Heights in 1988.

A native of Riverview, Mich., Vollmar earned a total of eight letters in track and basketball at Riverview Community High School. As a senior, he earned all-state honors as a pole vaulter. Vollmar attended the same high school that produced former Michigan head coach Lloyd Carr, former Vanderbilt head coach Woody Widenhofer and former Colorado head coach Bill McCartney. Vollmar earned a master's degree in sports management from the United States Sports Academy in Daphne, Ala., in 1989 where he was recently added to the school's alumni board. He and his wife, Tami, have a daughter, Bailey Lauren.

ED MARYNOWITZ

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Ed Marynowitz joined the Alabama staff in December of 2008 as the Director of Player Personnel. He comes to Tuscaloosa after a season as a scouting assistant for the Miami Dolphins.

Marynowitz directs Alabama football's recruiting efforts. In addition to those duties, he assists with camps, clinics and other football-related events. Marynowitz also serves as the liaison between Alabama and the NFL scouts and assists with the day to day administration and operation of the football program.

With the Dolphins, Marynowitz worked under general manager Jeff Ireland and executive vice president of football operations Bill Parcells. He worked in both the pro and college scouting departments where he assisted with the advance scouting of opponents, evaluation of both draft eligible college prospects and NFL free-agents, the execution of free-agent workouts, the monitoring of daily league transactions, and the maintenance of Miami's scouting databases.

Prior to his time with the Dolphins, Marynowitz spent two years on staff at the University of Central Florida under George O'Leary. He served as a graduate assistant during the 2006 season, working primarily with football operations before joining the staff on a full-time basis for the 2007 season as the Knights' recruiting administrator. In that role for UCF, Marynowitz directed the on-campus recruiting efforts in addition to assisting with day-to-day operations of the program.

He began his collegiate playing career as a two-year starter at La Salle University in Philadelphia where he threw for 4,896 yards and 24 touchdowns as a freshman and sophomore. Marynowitz earned honorable mention All-American honors in 2003 as a sophomore and holds a number of the school's passing records. He finished his playing career at UCF as a reserve quarterback on the 2005 Hawaii Bowl team.

Marynowitz completed his B.A. degree in business management in the spring of 2006 at the University of Central Florida. He finished his master's in business administration in December of 2007 and then a second master's degree in sports business management from UCF's DeVos Sport Business Management Program in May of 2008.

ED MARYNOWITZ

JEFF ALLEN

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jeff Allen is in his third year as head football athletic trainer at The University of Alabama. Before joining the Crimson Tide, Allen was the head athletic trainer at The University of Central Florida. He was responsible for all of the sports medicine needs for the entire department.

Prior to his post at UCF, Allen was head athletic trainer at Tennessee-Chattanooga from 2000-04 where he oversaw the athletic training operations for 16 varsity sports while handling all of the duties associated with the football program.

Allen was an assistant athletic trainer at the University of Kentucky from 1997-2000 and served as an assistant athletic trainer at Valdosta (Ga.) State from 1995-97 where he was head athletic trainer for the football and baseball teams. He earned his Masters in Health and Physical Education from Valdosta State University in 1995 while also serving as a graduate assistant for two years.

One of the most well-respected athletic trainers in the country, Allen has had several articles published and is a regular speaker at national and state athletic training conferences. He has had his work published by The Journal of Athletic Training and Athletic Therapy Today. Allen has served as a featured speaker at conferences held by the National Athletic Trainers Association and the Southeast Athletic Trainers Association, as well as state meetings in Georgia, Kentucky and Tennessee.

A 1993 graduate of Georgia Southern University with a bachelor's degree in Health and Physical Education, Allen and his wife, Mary, have one daughter, Makennah.

TANK CONERLY

ATHLETIC EQUIPMENT DIRECTOR

The all-important role of Athletic Equipment Director falls under the capable direction of Tank Conerly. Recognized as one of the nation' best in his field, Conerly began his duties at Alabama in 1987, joining the Tide staff from Duke University where he served as head athletic equipment manager from 1983-87.

Entering his 23rd year at Alabama, Conerly has seen the Crimson Tide compete in 15 bowl games and has been a part of three SEC Championship teams and the National Championship team in 1992.

A native of Jackson, Miss., Conerly was a four-year student equipment manager at the University of Mississippi. After graduation, Conerly became the assistant equipment manager at Ole Miss, before moving on to Duke University. Tank recently married the former Susie Webb and the couple has two daughters (Anna and Georgie).

JEREMY PRUITT

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Jeremy Pruitt joined Coach Nick Saban's staff as Director of Player Development in 2007, after a successful stint as an assistant coach at Hoover (Ala.) High School. He brings 12 years of coaching experience to the Alabama program, including three seasons as defensive backs coach at Hoover and as the defensive coordinator for the final two seasons. He tutored a defense that helped the Bucs reach the Class 6A State Championship in 2004, 2005 and 2006, winning titles in 2004 and 2005. Six of his players went on to sign Division I scholarships. Prior to his stint at Hoover, Pruitt served as an assistant coach under his father, Dale Pruitt, at Fort Payne High School from 2001-03.

He began his coaching career as a student assistant coach at Alabama during the 1997 season, where he worked under defensive backs coach Curley Hallman. After one-year on the UA staff, Pruitt joined his father's staff at Plainview High School, where he served as defensive backs coach and defensive coordinator in 1998 and 2000. He spent one season as defensive backs coach at the University of West Alabama, where he earned his bachelor's degree in 1999.

Pruitt played at both Middle Tennessee and Alabama during his collegiate career. He began his career at Middle Tennessee under legendary coach Boots Donnelly, where he was a two-year starter at safety and cornerback for the Blue Raiders.

After his sophomore season, Pruitt transferred to Alabama where he played two seasons under coach Gene Stallings. As a junior, Pruitt played in nine games and recorded seven tackles. As a senior, Pruitt played in seven games as a backup defensive back and was a member of Alabama's 1996 SEC Western Division Championship team that beat Michigan 17-13 in the Outback Bowl in Tampa.

A two-time all-state defensive back, Pruitt helped Plainview High School to a 48-8 record during his four-year career. He earned All-State honors in both 1991 and 1992.

WILLIE CARL MARTIN

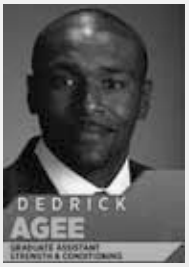

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Willie Carl Martin joined the Alabama football staff as Director of Player Development (Academics/Strength & Conditioning) in March of 2007 after serving as head football coach at Benjamin Russell High School in Alexander City since 2001.

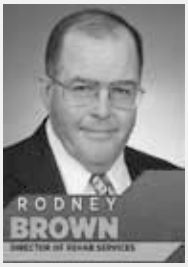

Martin's role at Alabama is to help in the personal development of each student-athlete and see to it that they reach their full potential from an academic and physical standpoint.

Martin compiled a 52-24 record in six seasons as head coach at Benjamin Russell. Previously an assistant coach for the school, where he coached Dallas Cowboys receiver Terrell Owens, Martin served 24 years in the Alexander City School System as a coach, teacher and administrator. A native of Alexander City, Martin joined the school system there in 1983 as a teacher and coach for Alexander Middle School. In 1985, he moved on to Benjamin Russell High School in a similar capacity and was elevated to head football coach in 2001. He led the Wildcats to the state championship in 2001 and was an assistant during the 1997 and 2000 seasons when they finished as runners-up. For the last four years, Martin has served on the Central Board of Control for the Alabama High School Athletic Association (AHSAA).

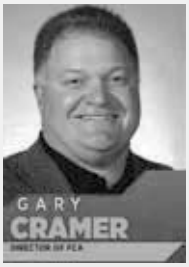

A 1975 graduate of Northeastern State University in Tahlequah, Okla., Martin was inducted into the NSU Athletic Hall of Fame in February 2007. He was a four-year letterman (1969-72) in football for NSU as an offensive lineman and earned All-America and All-Oklahoma Collegiate Conference First Team honors as a senior in 1972. After graduation, the Houston Oilers of the National Football League (NFL) drafted Martin. However, he chose to compete in the Canadian Football League (CFL) where his 10-year career featured stops in Edmonton and Winnipeg. Martin was named All-Pro in eight of his 10 seasons in the CFL, participated in six Grey Cup games and won two championships. Martin and his wife, Leslie Ruth, have two daughters, Carla and Kizzy, and one grandson, Malik.

"The University of Alabama has never been stronger. Our academic programs continue to prosper. Almost one quarter of this year's entering freshman class enrolled in the Honors College. This group scored in the top two percent nationally on the ACT, and they have extraordinarily strong high school records. The research activity of our faculty has grown significantly and our service to our community and state has never been more substantial. The future of our University is very bright."

Dr. Robert E. Witt
PRESIDENT, UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA

SWEET HOME ALABAMA

As president of The University of Alabama, Dr. Robert E. Witt has committed the University to an ambitious plan for growth and achievement. His goals include increasing enrollment to 28,000 students and stimulating significant growth in research in support of economic expansion for the state and nation. Under his leadership, enrollment has reached record levels, academic quality has increased significantly, and scholarship opportunities for deserving students have improved dramatically. The University ranks 11th nationally among public universities in the enrollment of National Merit Scholars and leads the nation in the number of students named to USA Today's All-USA College Academic Teams. Since its inception in 2003, the University's Honors College has grown exponentially and currently enrolls more than 1,000 freshmen each year. Dr. Witt has also led a major building program on campus with more than 20 new facilities opening during his presidency. The University's new Science and Engineering Building and a new 960-bed residence hall opened for fall 2009 and the new College of Nursing Building is under construction.

Private giving to the University reached an all-time high as supporters embraced the "Our Students. Our Future." capital campaign, which concluded in June 2009, significantly exceeding its goal of $500 million.

Prior to joining The University of Alabama in 2003, Dr. Witt spent 35 years as a faculty member and administrator in the University of Texas System. He received his B.A. in economics from Bates College, his M.B.A. from Tuck School at Dartmouth College, and his Ph.D. from Penn State University. He serves on the board of directors of the West Alabama Chamber of Commerce and the Black Warrior Council Boy Scouts of America, and is a member of the Tuscaloosa County Industrial Development Authority. Dr. Witt and his wife Sandee have three grandchildren.

SNAPSHOTS:

Five University of Alabama students were named to the 2009 USA Today All-USA College Academic Team, the most of any school. This year's team brings UA's total for the last seven years to 36, a figure that tops all other colleges and universities.

TOP RANKED

ONE OF AMERICA'S TOP PUBLIC UNIVERSITIES

The University of Alabama perennially ranks among the top 50 public universities in the nation in U.S. News and World Report's annual college rankings, and ranked a record 37th among public universities in the 2009 rankings. UA's latest college rankings include:

- The School of Law is ranked 11th among public law schools and 30th among all law schools in the nation, spring 2009.
- The School of Library and Information Studies is ranked 22nd nationally, spring 2009.
- The School of Social Work's graduate program is ranked 28th among social work programs at public universities and 42nd when both public and private institutions are included, spring 2008.
- The undergraduate business program is ranked 29th among public undergraduate business schools and 52nd when private universities are included, fall 2008.

U.S.News America's Best Colleges 2009

Enrollment at The University of Alabama reached a record high of 27,052 for fall 2008. The entering freshman class, at 5,116 students, was the largest in UA history and includes more than 1,000 freshmen who had a 4.0 or higher high school grade point average. One in five freshmen – 1,065 students -- enrolled in UA's Honors College for fall 2008.

The University of Alabama ranks 11th in the nation among public universities in the enrollment of National Merit Scholars.

The University of Alabama has produced a total of 15 Rhodes Scholars. And, in the past two decades, we've produced 29 Goldwater Scholars, 13 Hollings Scholars, seven Truman Scholars, two Javits Fellows, one Udall Scholar and one Portz Scholar.

UA is one of the top five public flagship universities in the nation in the enrollment of African-American students. For the 2008-2009 academic year, African-Americans represented 11.3 percent of the student body.

Participation in original research and creative activities is becoming a hallmark of the undergraduate experience at The University of Alabama. More than 250 undergraduates showcased their research and creative activity projects at UA's spring 2009 "Undergraduate Research and Creative Activity Conference."

The Center for College Affordability and Productivity ranks The University of Alabama seventh in the nation among public universities in a study published in Forbes magazine, May 2008. Criteria included student evaluations, graduation rates, the percentage of students winning top national awards, and professional achievement of graduates.

The University of Alabama has been named to the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll by the Corporation for National and Community Service. The Community Service Honor Roll is the highest federal recognition a school can achieve for its commitment to service learning and civic engagement.

The University of Alabama has been selected by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching for its 2008 Community Engagement Classification. The designation recognizes UA as one of the nation's premiere institutions in community outreach and scholarship.

The University of Alabama contributes $1.8 billion to the state's economy each year.

This year alone, more than 900 University of Alabama students will receive a total of more than $2.3 million in scholarships provided by the National Alumni Association. The UA National Alumni Association is among the nation's leading public-university-based comprehensive associations, ranking among the top 10 in alumni support.

GORGAS LIBRARY

Life on The University of Alabama campus is defined by opportunities. If you want to get involved, join one of more than 250 student organizations, help plan concerts and speaker series, participate in intramural teams or run for student government.

If you enjoy the arts, you can take advantage of a rich and varied schedule of musical, dance and theatre performances, art galleries and exhibitions, lectures and readings by writers, poets and experts on every topic imaginable. You can enrich your knowledge of the state and university's history by visiting one of UA's fine museums, which house countless historical artifacts and offer hands-on exploration opportunities.

THE PRESIDENT'S MANSION

In 1838 the University of Alabama Board of Trustees appropriated funds for a more suitable residence for the University's new president, Basil Manly. The mansion was built between 1839 and 1841. According to tradition, Louisa Frances Garland, wife of president Landon C. Garland, valiantly saved the stately residence from destruction when Union troops destroyed the campus in April 4, 1865. The mansion, which has undergone a number of restorations, assumed its predominately white appearance in 1908.

From the architecture on campus to the landscaping, The University of Alabama campus is one of the most beautiful places in the state of Alabama.

THE FERGUSON CENTER

The Ferguson Center, completed in 1973, was named for Hill Ferguson, a member of the Board of Trustees. Plans at the time called for the building to be constructed over Woods Hall, but it was built just to the north thanks to a student campaign to save the art building.

The Ferguson Center Game Room located on the First Floor is the perfect place to unwind, test your skill at a video game, play a friendly game of pool or ping-pong, or enter a campus tournament. With seven pool tables, video games, a ping-pong table, computer gaming and televisions, the Game Room offers a fun escape to the daily pressures of college life.

The Ferguson Center is the community center of The University of Alabama. The "Ferg" houses an impressive array of services and facilities including:

*Alabama Credit Union
*Art gallery
*ATM machines
*Ballroom
*Career Center
*Computer Lab
*Crimson Copies
*Dean of Students
*Food Court
*Game room/arcade

STUDENT SECTION

The University of Alabama offers a complete educational, cultural and social experience. Whatever your interests, you'll find a group, an organization, an activity or a program that will appeal to you at UA.

There are more than 50 Greek organizations and more than 30 campus ministries at The University of Alabama.

THE STUDENT RECREATION CENTER

The newly expanded Student Recreation Center offers first-class recreation facilities to students, faculty and staff.

The expanded facility includes two multi-use gyms, nine multi-purpose courts, weight machines, 1/8-mile jogging track, extensive cardio area, locker rooms, indoor swimming pool, dry and steam saunas, 12 lighted tennis courts, four aerobics rooms, eight racquetball courts and a squash court—together encompassing more than 200,000 square feet.

The facility's outdoor aquatic area, which opened in the summer of 2003, features a lazy river, lap swim, large water-park-type slide and lots of deck space.

MAL MOORE
ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

As a permanent tribute to Director of Athletics Mal Moore's lifetime contributions to The University of Alabama, the Board of Trustees of The University of Alabama officially dedicated the facility formerly known as the Football Building as the Mal M. Moore Athletic Facility on March 28, 2007.

Normally, the naming of a building in your honor would serve as a fitting end to an outstanding career, but Mal Moore's ongoing vision remains focused on two primary objectives: elevating athletic facilities at the Capstone to premier status nationally for all sports and making all Crimson Tide athletic teams competitive at the highest level nationally.

Moore's distinguished record of service to UA began over 50 years ago when he joined the Crimson Tide football squad as a scholarship player for Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant from 1958-62. He earned a bachelor's degree in sociology in 1963 and a master's in secondary education in 1962. Moore has the distinction of earning seven national championship rings during his career as a player and coach, the first as a member of the Crimson Tide's 1961 national championship team.

During his coaching tenure, Moore served as Coach Bryant's graduate assistant in 1964, then as defensive backfield coach for five years beginning in 1965 before becoming quarterbacks coach from 1971-1982, and taking on additional responsibility as the Tide's first offensive coordinator in 1975. He is the only individual connected with the Alabama coaching staffs, both past and present, to be a part of seven national championships (1961, 1964, 1965, 1973, 1978, 1979, and 1992). After coaching stops at Montana State, Notre Dame and the NFL's St. Louis and Phoenix Cardinals, Moore returned to Alabama, and was named assistant athletics director in 1993 and associate director for external affairs in 1994. He was named director of athletics on Nov. 23, 1999.

Three elements of his story make Mal Moore deserving of a special place in UA athletics history. First, he has been a part of seven national championship football teams (as a player and coach). Second, he's been the leader who brought the UA athletic program into the 21st century in terms of facilities and staffing. Third and, perhaps most importantly, his love for the University of Alabama is unsurpassed.

Now in his 11th year as the Tide's Director of Athletics, Moore made an indelible mark on one of the nation's most storied athletic programs. Alabama's athletic teams have excelled in competition and he directed completion of a $125 million facilities campaign that revitalized the Crimson Tide's athletic facilities. Moore's leadership, vision and initiative enabled the monumental project to reach fruition.

Alabama football competes in the newly expanded Bryant-Denny Stadium which holds 92,138 fans, the eighth-largest on campus facility in the nation. With the north end zone expansion completed, this magnificent edifice now houses 120 skyboxes, a new home team locker room, a club level area hosting 1,680 patrons, a new administrative level and approximately 6,800 additional upper deck seats.

Moore has also spearheaded the next expansion of Bryant-Denny Stadium that got underway in the spring of 2009. The South End Zone expansion, expected to be finished for the 2010 season, will increase seating to over 101,000 with the addition of more than 9,000 seats and 36 skyboxes. The project also will include new offices for the Crimson Tide Foundation, a food market & merchandise store, and two new video boards on the corners of the upper deck.

Moore's tenure at UA has been marked by unprecedented facility growth for the athletic department but he has also had a national impact as a key member of several prestigious NCAA and college football committees. Moore currently serves on the NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee, the SEC Athletic Directors Bowl Advisory Committee and on the Big Six Conferences Minority Coaches Forum.

Alabama student-athletes utilize new stadiums for soccer and tennis and football enjoys use of a state-of-the-art weight facility, locker room and sports medicine area and a Hall of Champions and administrative area that makes it one of top venues in the nation. Crimson Tide student-athletes also benefit from a state-of-the-art academic center completed in early 2005. Also completed in 2005 was a $22 million renovation of Coleman Coliseum.

Under Moore's direction Alabama's athletic teams have produced a number of Southeastern Conference titles, including men's basketball, gymnastics, baseball, men's cross country, men's golf and softball and SEC tournament titles in both baseball and softball, and an NCAA gymnastics title. Alabama athletes have earned some of the highest honors the SEC and NCAA have to offer, including SEC Athlete of the Year, SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year, NCAA Top VIII, NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships and NCAA Sportsperson of the Year. These honors are over and above the individual conference and national titles that Alabama athletes continue to bring home to the Capstone.

During his tenure, Moore has also supervised the completion of a number of other facility projects, highlighted by the expansion of Sewell-Thomas Stadium; new lighting systems for Coleman Coliseum and the women's soccer field and installation of new artificial turf in the Hank Crisp Indoor Practice Facility.

Hired on November 23, 1999, Moore's stint as Director of Athletics is the latest phase of service to the Capstone. Well known in athletic circles, Moore stewards a vision of championships and success via his vast experience in collegiate athletics. As a player and coach at Alabama, Moore was part of seven national championships, 14 SEC championships, and 27 bowl trips.

Alabama capitalized on that background, and Moore's popularity, by naming him as Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs in 1994, a position that required constant travel to speaking engagements around the Southeast. Throughout his multi-faceted career, Moore has worked with a diversified field of constituents, from fellow coaches to former players, to fans and the business community. All those experiences and relationships made him the ideal person to lead Alabama athletics into the 21st century.

A 1963 graduate of The University of Alabama, Moore holds both an undergraduate degree in Sociology and a 1964 Master's Degree in Secondary Education from the Capstone.

Coaching football for 31 years, 22 of those at Alabama, provided Moore with a wealth of experience and knowledge in the world of college athletics. Alabama won national championships, in 1964, 1965, 1973, 1978, 1979 and 1992 with Moore coordinating all the offensive plays for the last four of those championship teams.

Moore was born December 19, 1939, in Dozier, Ala. He has been married to the former Charlotte Davis of Tuscaloosa since July 20, 1968. They have one daughter, Mrs. Steve (Heather) Cook of Scottsdale, Ariz., a granddaughter, Anna Lee, and a grandson, Charles Cannon.

Drawing from our rich heritage and tradition of champions, the University of Alabama Department of Athletics is committed to the highest standard of excellence in all its endeavors to develop future leaders.

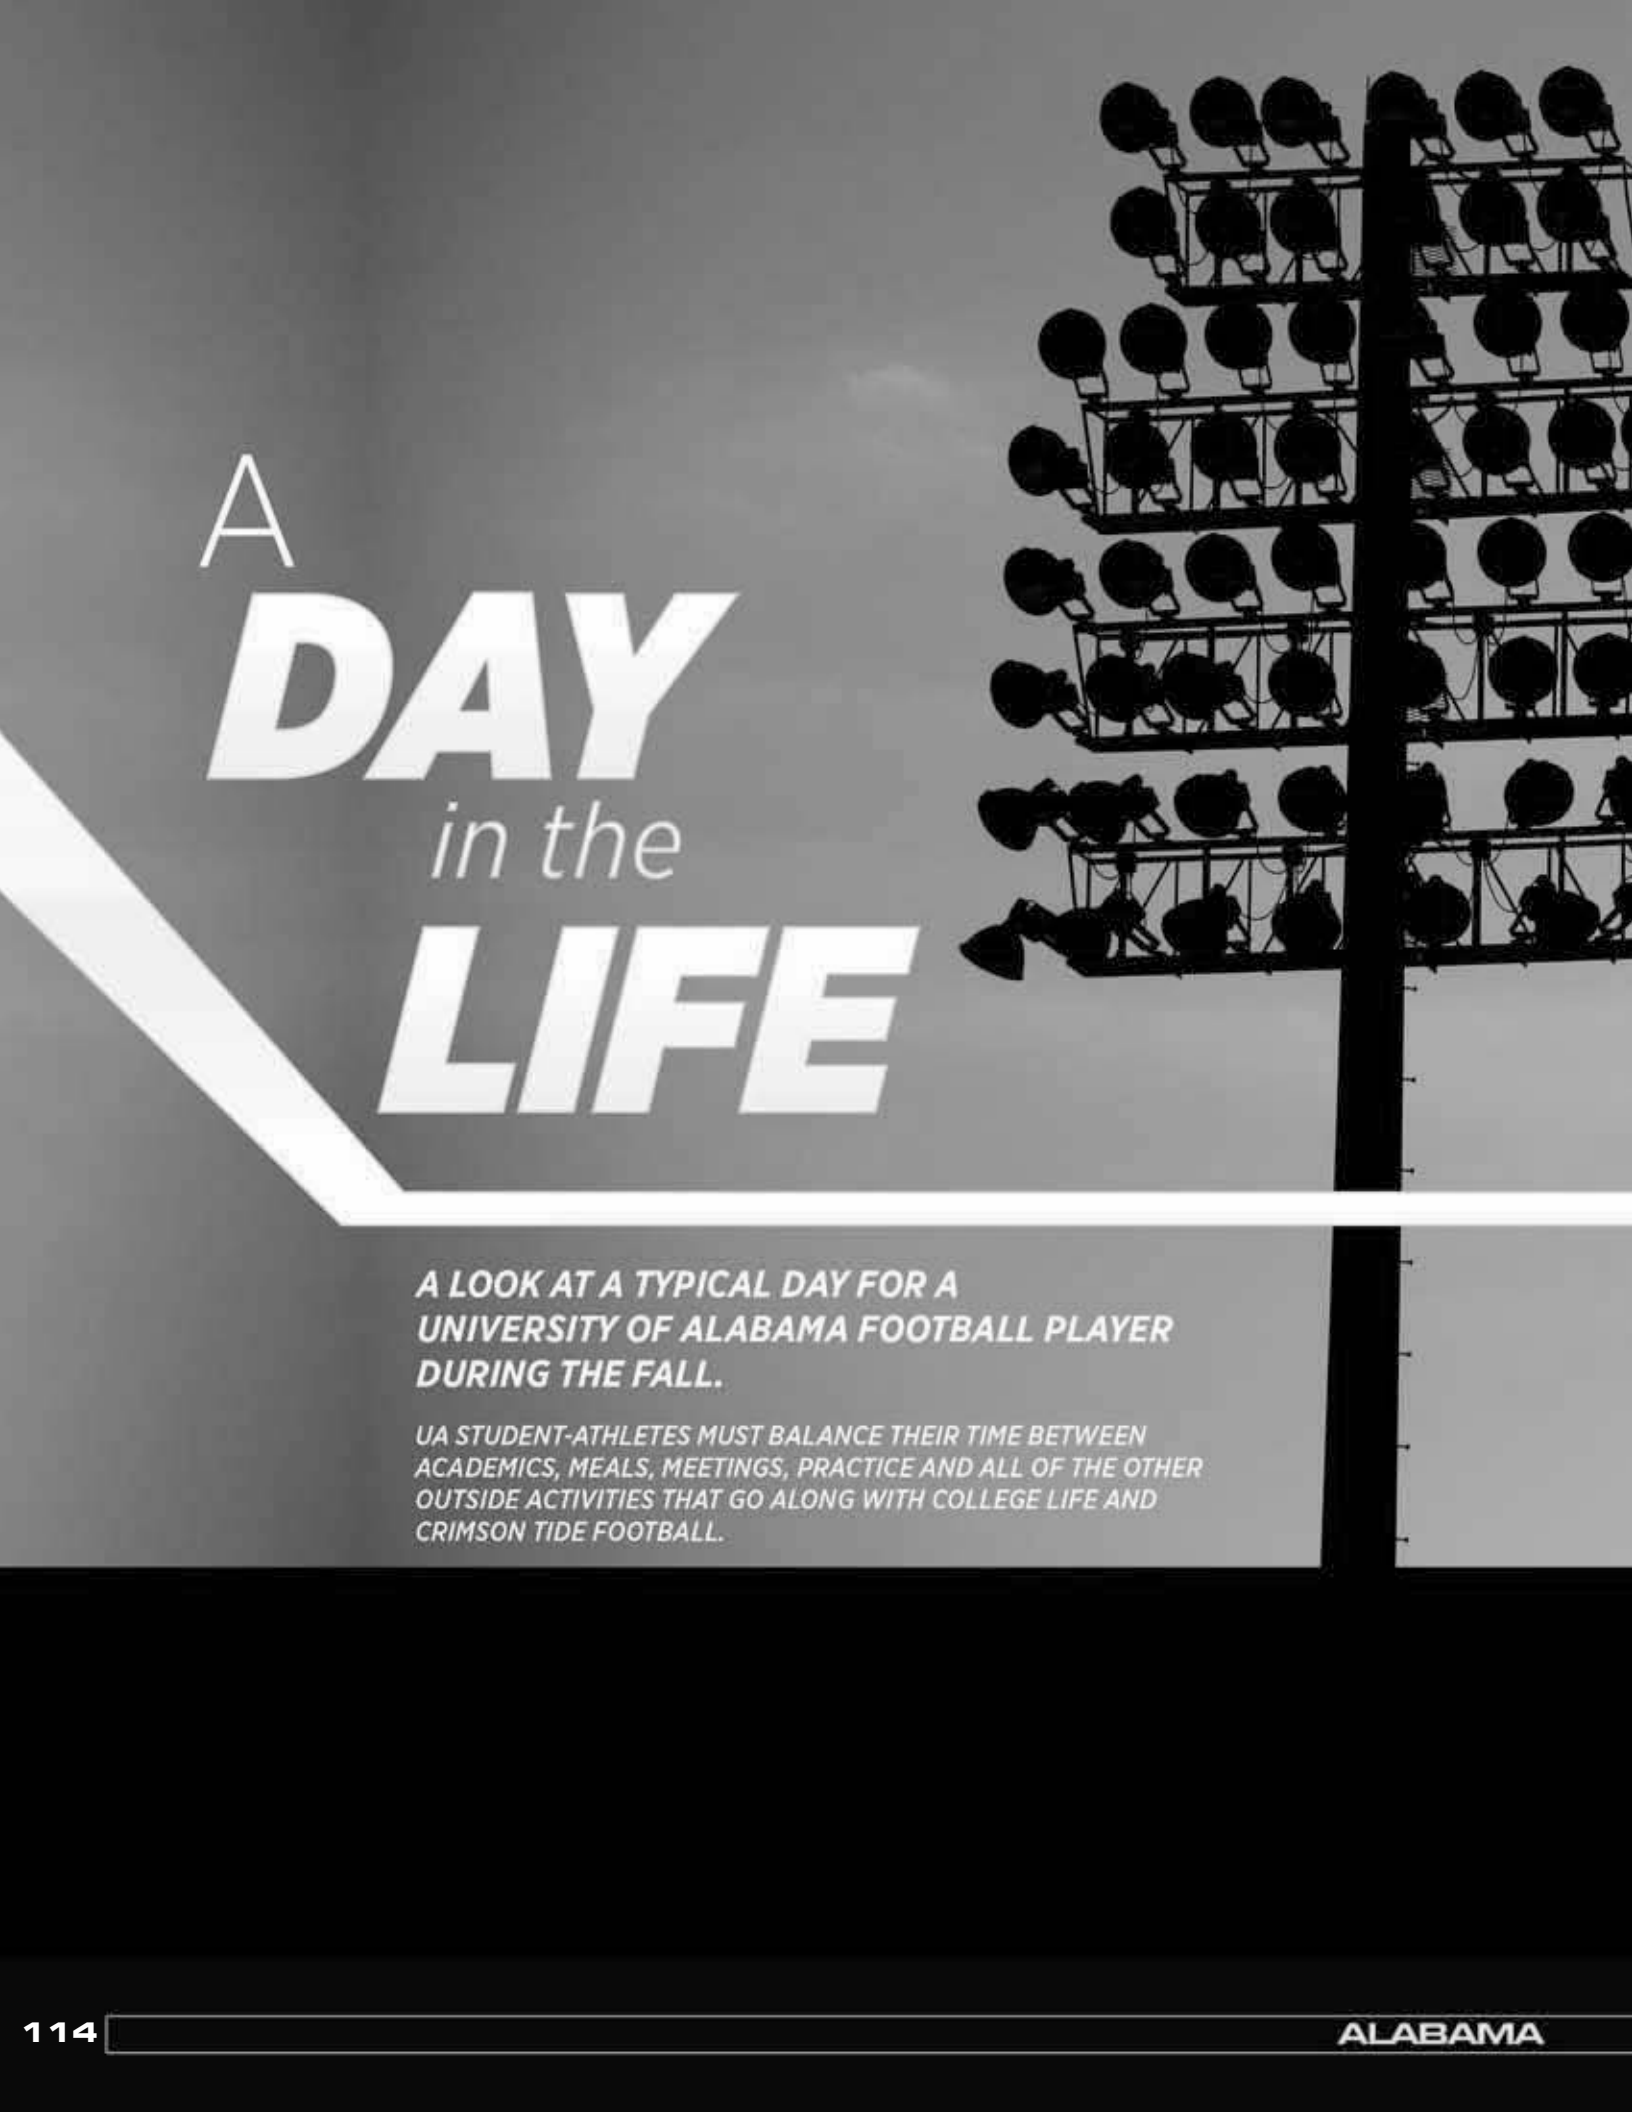

TRADITION CHAMPIONS LEADERS

In embracing our core values we will:

Build and maintain an athletic program that annually ranks among the national elite in all sports; emphasize recruitment of the top student-athlete; construct and develop first-class facilities in which our student-athletes and coaches can train and compete at the highest level; promote community involvement of our student-athletes, coaches and staff as necessary for our program's success; and perpetuate our rich heritage and tradition through the spirited branding of our Crimson Tide name.

VISION	We will be visionary in our efforts to develop and maintain a superior Intercollegiate Athletics Program.
INTEGRITY	We will demonstrate unquestionable integrity in all areas of conduct in total compliance with all UA, SEC and NCAA regulations; including day-to-day interaction with all fellow staff members and student-athletes.
COMMITMENT	We will commit to the total support of the educational, athletic and personal development of all our student-athletes while training future leaders.
RESPECT	We will demonstrate diversity and inclusiveness within our department providing opportunities regardless of gender, race or physical challenges.
EXCELLENCE	We will pursue generational loyalty to Crimson Tide Athletics through the comprehensive excellence in our athletic programs.
ACCOUNTABILITY	We will accept the responsibility for our actions as representatives of the athletic department while being accountable to our student-athletes, staff, fans and supporters.

"We want to be successful as students. I always tell players there's two things that we want you to do here, you've got two careers: one on the field, one off the field. The one off the field means you've got to graduate from college. That's the one that's going to have the greatest impact on the quality of your life forever. We want to have a great academic support program. We want our players to succeed as students."

ROLL MODELS

Tide Players seek to maximize their impact.

The Crimson Tide players regularly give back to the city of Tuscaloosa and the surrounding areas through various community service programs. Alabama athletes take time out of their hectic schedules to read to children, speak at local churches or to just stop by a hospital to brighten the day of patients.

"I think community service is extremely important, and I love doing it. It is probably more of a reward for me when I get to see the kids and the smiles on their faces. We are in a position where they look up to us, and we can speak on the importance of getting an education and making good choices."

ARENAS GIVES BACK

Football student-athlete Javier Arenas recently visited Brookwood Middle School in Tuscaloosa to speak to students about the negatives of bullying, drug use, and truancy. School officials indicated that Javier's charismatic personality and positive energy touched the heart and soul of students and faculty members that he met during the visit.

"I enjoyed having the opportunity to brighten up the students' and teachers' day.

JAVIER ARENAS
SENIOR ALABAMA CORNERBACK

"Visiting Brookwood Middle School was a down to earth experience," said Arenas. The visit reminded me of myself at that age. I remember Derrick Brooks of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers visiting my elementary school and talking about behavior and making good grades. Getting to meet Derrick Brooks influenced me to straighten up in school and start applying myself more academically. I hope the words of encouragement that I communicated to the students of Brookwood Middle School will leave the same impression on some of them to make a positive change in their behavior and to improve their grades."

THE RISE OF THE TIDE

"To have a tradition like ours means that you can't lose your cool; to have tradition like ours means that you always have to show class, even when you are not quite up to it; to have tradition like ours means that you have to do some things that you don't want to do and some you even think you can't do, simply because tradition demands it of you. On the other hand, tradition is that which allows us to prevail in ways that we could not otherwise."

DAVID MATTHEWS
FORMER UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA PRESIDENT

Alabama football boasts a rich tradition that dates back for more than a century. The winningest program in SEC annals, Alabama has won 21 SEC Championships and 12 National Championship in its 114-year history.

It all began with University of Alabama law student William G. Little who learned how to play American football while attending prep school in Andover, Massachusetts. He began teaching the sport to fellow Alabama students in early 1892. Later in the year, the school formed an official team of 19 players, with Little as captain and E.B. Beaumont as the team's head coach. Among those also on the team was William B. Bankhead, future U.S. Speaker of the House, and Bibb Graves, future governor of Alabama. The team was referred to as the "Cadets", the "Crimson White", or simply as "The Varsity". Following the 1907 season, the team adopted the "Crimson Tide" nickname.

Shortly after the end of the 1922 season in which he led Alabama in the victory over Penn, head coach Xen C. Scott passed away and Brown University alum Wallace Wade was hired as Alabama's new head coach. Intent on building a dynasty after Wade led the team to its first national championship with a win over Washington in the 1926 Rose Bowl, athletics director George Denny took advantage of the team's newfound popularity and began advertising the University of Alabama in metropolitan New York City newspapers. Students, football players and fans alike from the Northeast began enrolling at Alabama at such a rate that by 1930, over one-third of the student body was out-of-state. Wade led the Crimson Tide to two more national titles before taking the head coaching position at Duke in 1931.

Frank Thomas, a former quarterback for a Notre Dame squad led by Knute Rockne, was hired to replace Wade. Thomas led the team to continued success and two more national championships before health issues forced him to retire after 14-year tenure with the team. Among the players that Thomas coached were Harry Gilmer, Don Hutson, and Paul "Bear" Bryant.

Bryant returned to his alma mater in December 1957, after leaving his head coaching position at Texas A&M. In his fourth season (1961), Bryant led the Crimson Tide to their sixth national championship, which included Bryant's first bowl victory with Alabama. From 1961 to 1966, Alabama went 60-5-1 (.917), which also included four Southeastern Conference Championships, two undefeated seasons and three national championships. During the 1970s, the Crimson Tide was again one of the most dominant teams in college football, winning eight conference titles and three national championships. Alabama posted a 103-16-1 (.863) during the decade.

During his tenure at Alabama, Bryant led Alabama to a 232-46-9 record. His achievements included six national championships, 13 Southeastern Conference titles, and 11 bowl victories. In his 25 seasons, he led the Crimson Tide to 24 consecutive bowl appearances. At the time of his retirement, Bryant was the winningest college football coach.

Gene Stallings, a former member of Bryant's famed "Junction Boys" at Texas A&M, had an amazing seven-year run with the Tide from 1990-96, leading UA to the school's 12th national title in 1992.

Nick Saban is making his mark on the Tide program in his third season as head coach. He led Alabama to a 12-2 record last season and the SEC Western Division Championship and a berth in the school's second BCS bowl game as the tradition continues.

THE ORIGINS OF THE NAME CRIMSON TIDE

In early newspaper accounts of Alabama football, the team was simply listed as the "varsity" or the "Crimson White" after the school colors. The first nickname to become popular and used by headline writers was the "Thin Red Line." The nickname was used until 1906. The name "Crimson Tide" is supposed to have first been used by Hugh Roberts, former sports editor of The Birmingham Age-Herald. He used "Crimson Tide" in describing an Alabama-Auburn game played in Birmingham in 1907, the last football contest between the two schools until 1948 when the series was resumed. The game was played in a sea of mud and Auburn was a heavy favorite to win. But, evidently, the "Thin Red Line" played a great game in the red mud and held Auburn to a 6-6 tie, thus gaining the name "Crimson Tide." Zipp Newman, former sports editor of The Birmingham News, probably popularized the name more than any other writer.

THE BEAR

"I ain't never been nothin' but a winner."

PAUL W. "BEAR" BRYANT
ALABAMA HEAD COACH 1958-1982

LEGEND HAS IT

A young Bryant goes to the Fordyce Theatre in Arkansas where anyone who will wrestle a bear can win a dollar. Bryant wrestles the bear but the owner and the bear escape without paying. He didn't get the buck but he earned a nickname, Bear.

Paul William Bryant retired from coaching as the game's all-time winningest coach with a 323-85-17 (.780) overall record. He spent 25 of his 37 years on the sidelines at the University of Alabama, where he returned the Crimson Tide football program to national prominence.

During his time in Tuscaloosa, Bryant compiled a 232-46-9 (.824) record and directed Alabama to six national championships. He also led the Crimson Tide to 13 SEC titles, was the national coach of the year three times and the SEC coach of the year on eight occasions.

In 1958, Bryant returned to his alma mater and the rebuilding process was underway. In his second year back at the Capstone, he beat Auburn and took the Tide to its first of 25 straight bowl appearances. In 1961, Bryant's first recruiting class, highlighted by quarterback Pat Trammell, linebacker Lee Roy Jordan and lineman Billy Neighbors, helped the Tide capture the first of Bryant's six national titles.

Two more titles followed in 1964 and 1965 and despite an 11-0 record the Tide missed out on a third in 1966. In 1971, Bryant installed the "wishbone" offense to revamp the Tide program. The next 10 years, Alabama dominated the college football scene, winning 108 games, three more national titles and sending Bryant atop college football's all-time leader board for career wins.

In 1934, the first year of the Southeastern Conference, Bryant helped the Crimson Tide to the initial SEC Championship and a national championship. Bryant became known in football folklore as the 'other end' to Don Hutson as Alabama went 10-0 and knocked off Stanford 29-13 in the Rose Bowl to claim the school's fourth national crown.

Bryant's head coaching career began in 1945 at Maryland. The following year made the move to Kentucky for eight years and followed that with a four-year stint at Texas A&M. He guided teams to 15 conference titles, including 13 at Alabama.

ALABAMA ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

With a recent $47 million renovation and another $80 million project currently in construction, Bryant-Denney Stadium is truly one of the top football facilities in the nation. The current seating capacity of 92,138, makes Bryant-Denny Stadium the eighth-largest on-campus football stadium in the nation.

The current renovation project will push capacity over 101,000 with an additional 36 skyboxes and 1,700 club seats. This coming renovation marks the fourth expansion of this magnificent edifice since 1988 and the seventh time Bryant-Denny Stadium has been expanded since it was originally completed in 1929. Other expansions were completed in 1946, 1961, 1966, 1988, 1998 and 2006.

The 2006 expansion project, which began immediately following the 2004 football season, also added three levels of premium seating, a pair of large video scoreboards in the north end zone and state-of-the-art wrap-around display boards situated on the facades of the east and west upper decks.

Bryant-Denny Stadium has been SOLD OUT for every Alabama home game for the past 20 years.

A unique aspect of the "new" stadium is a plaza connecting the stadium with University Boulevard. The plaza, which quickly became a focal point on game-day Saturdays, honors Alabama's national championship coaches and commemorates the Tide's 12 national and 21 SEC titles.

The 2006 expansion added 38 luxury skyboxes, bringing the total number of skyboxes in the stadium to 123. The current expansion will increase that number to 159 skyboxes. Also added was a club level area and traditional upper deck seating. Office space is also included, as well as a home team locker room located in the north end zone. A state-of-the-art sound system was installed in 2005.

Since those early games, a number of projects have expanded Bryant-Denny Stadium to its current capacity of 92,138. When Alabama and Hawai'i met to open the 2006 season, a sellout crowd marked the largest crowd to view a college football game in the state of Alabama.

Included in the 1998 east side expansion were 10,000 bleacher seats and two spiral walkways to give the stadium a more symmetrical appearance. A total of 81 skyboxes, on two levels, were also added. The skyboxes were built in two sizes, 24-seat capacity (18) and 16-seat capacity (64). In 1999, four additional skyboxes were added and a scoreboard with video replay capabilities was added to the south end.

Other recent additions to Bryant-Denny Stadium include two east side reception areas for Scholarship and A-Club level patrons. These areas are located above the center entrance on the east side and include rooms large enough to host receptions and pre-game meal functions. A bank of lights was also added on the east side.

The 2008 season was only the eighth time in the stadium's history that Alabama has played all of its home games at Bryant-Denny. From 1900 until 2003, Alabama played at least one home game at Birmingham's Legion Field.

The Crimson Tide owns an impressive 218-46-3 (.822) all-time record in Tuscaloosa as more than seven million fans have witnessed the Crimson Tide play in 98 home games over the last 18 seasons.

"It's a College Football Record 56 Bowl Appearances."

Alabama defeated Texas Tech 13-10 in the 2006 Cotton Bowl.

The Tide has been to more bowl games (56) than any team in the country.

The Alabama football team has made an NCAA-leading 56 bowl appearance following their 2009 Allstate Sugar Bowl appearance. The Crimson Tide has played in more bowl games (56) and earned more bowl wins (31) than any team in college football history. Alabama has 13 Sugar Bowl appearance and more Sugar Bowl wins (eight) than any other program in the bowl's storied history. The Tide has also made eight Orange Bowl appearances, seven Cotton Bowl appearances and played in six Rose Bowl games in their history. Alabama has been bowling for five consecutive seasons, something that has not happened since the Crimson Tide played in 10 straight bowl games from 1985-94.

21 Conference Titles

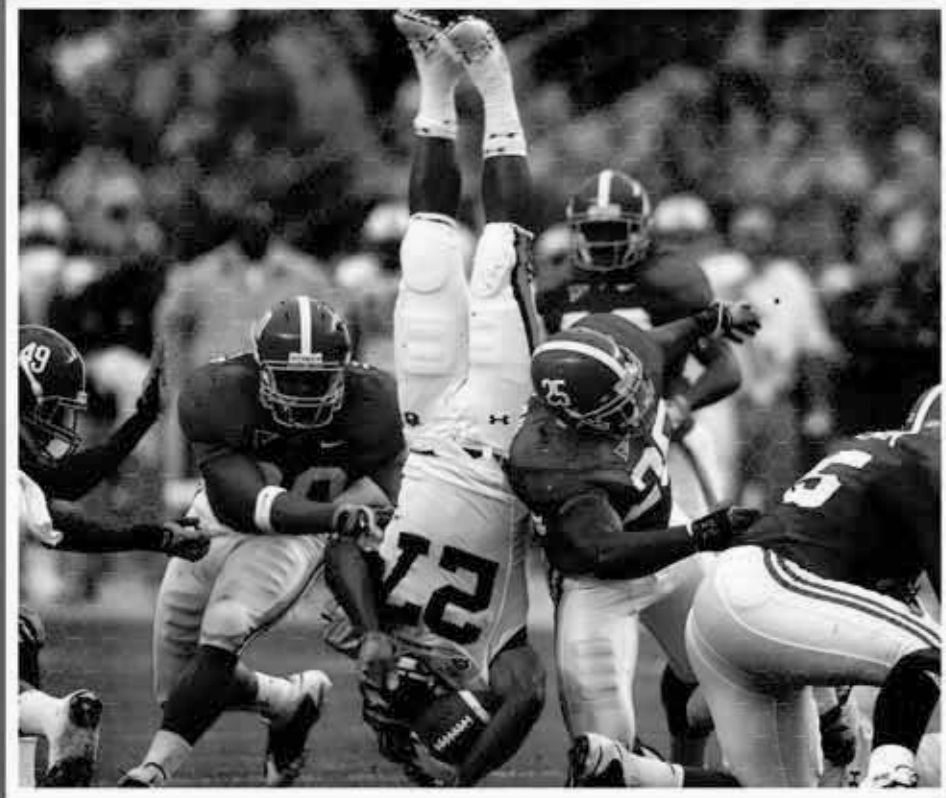

Alabama has a winning record against every school in the Southeastern Conference.

The Southeastern Conference begins its 77th season of play in 2009. The league began play in 1933 with 13 schools - Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt.

Alabama won the league's first conference title in 1933 by virture of its 5-0-1 conference record.

Sewanee left the conference following the 1940 season while Georgia Tech left after the 1963 season and Tulane followed after the 1965 campaign. Arkansas and South Carolina entered the SEC prior to the 1992 season.

The SEC was the first conference to split into two divisions and have its regular season culminate in a conference championship game. The first SEC Championship Game was held on Dec. 5, 1992 at Legion Field in Birmingham, Ala.

THE TIDE ROLLED THROUGH THE SEC REGULAR SEASON IN 2008

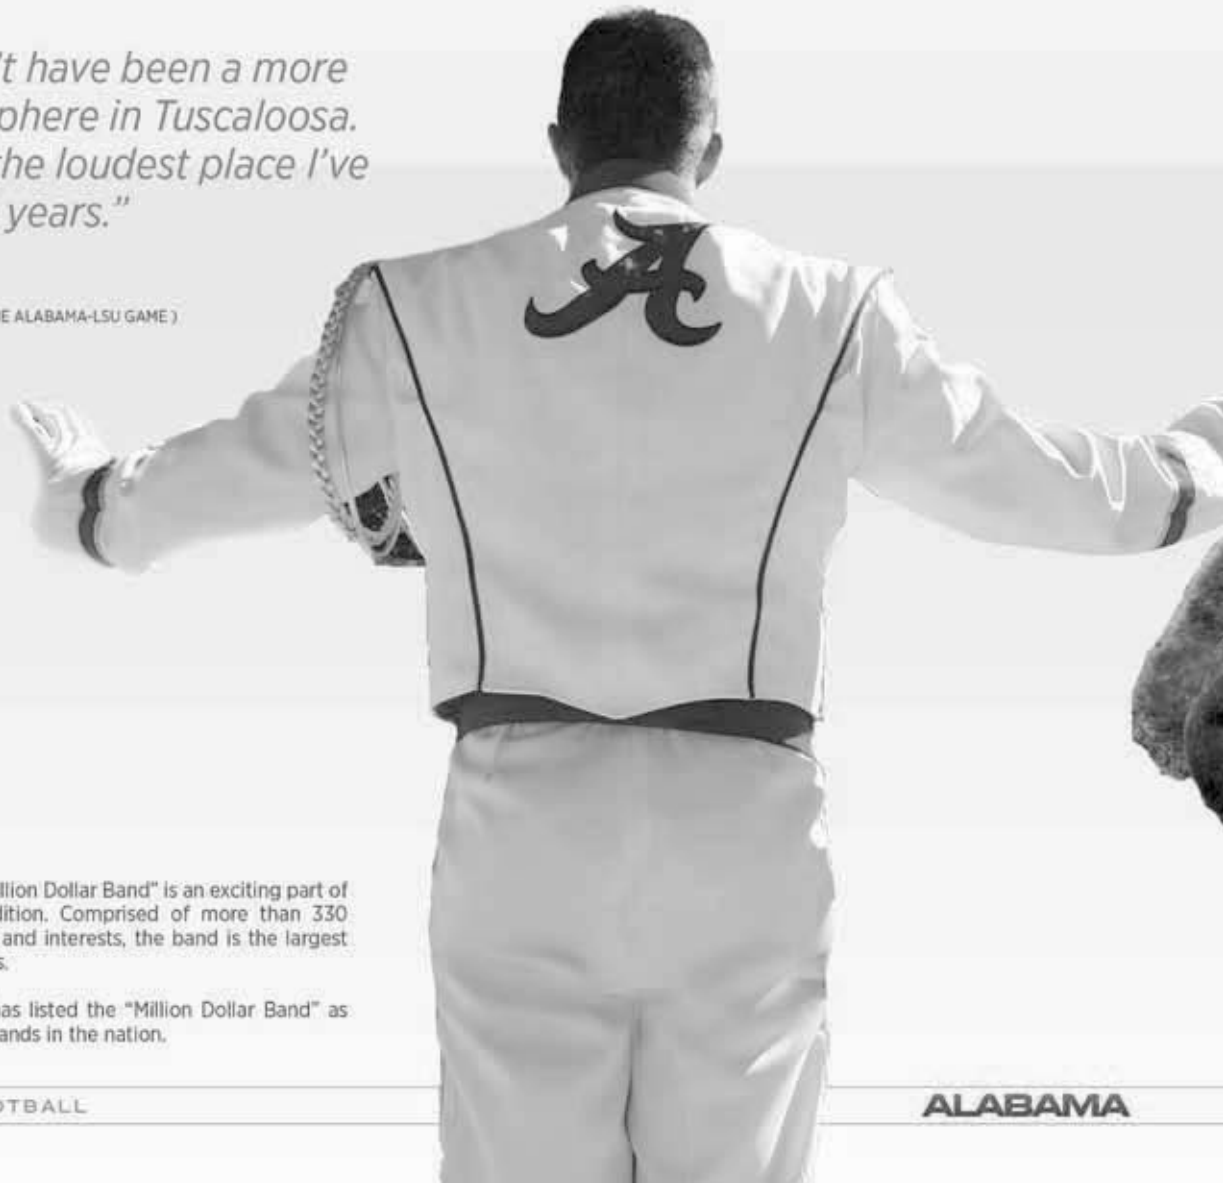

The Crimson Tide tore through their 2008 SEC slate with a perfect 8-0 mark in the regular season to capture the school's sixth SEC Western Division Championship since 1992. Alabama opened the league slate with a 49-14 thrashing of Arkansas in Fayetteville and followed that with a resounding 41-30 win to blackout No. 3 Georgia in Athens. The Tide then returned home to take care of business at Bryant-Denny Stadium against Kentucky (17-14) and Mississippi (24-20). Next on the slate was a visit to Tennessee and all that was remaining inside Neyland Stadium when the clock ticked to 00:00 was a boisterous contingent of Crimson and White as the Tide rolled to a 29-9 win. A trip to the Bayou was next in line for Alabama as Nick Saban led his Crimson Tide into his old stomping grounds in Baton Rouge and emerged with a 27-21 overtime win. After a 32-7 whipping of Mississippi State in Tuscaloosa, the Tide closed out its perfect conference record with 36-0 dismantling of rival Auburn.

MILLION DOLLAR BAND

The University of Alabama "Million Dollar Band" is an exciting part of Crimson Tide spirit and tradition. Comprised of more than 330 students with various majors and interests, the band is the largest single organization on campus.

Sports Illustrated magazine has listed the "Million Dollar Band" as one of the top three college bands in the nation.

The Crimson Tide arrives at Bryant-Denny every week to the sounds of thousands of fans along each side of "The Walk of Champions"

On any given Saturday during football season, it is not unheard of to have 20,000 fans outside the stadium during the game. Tailgating and hanging out on the Quad are part of the Alabama tradition. People arrive early to see the band and the cheerleaders lead the crowd and they stay late to make sure they haven't missed anything, especially "Rammer Jammer Yellow Hammer."

"Big Al" is one of the most recognized mascots in the country. His antics during the game make him a crowd favorite.

Yea, Alabama! Drown 'em Tide!
Every 'Bama man's behind you,
Hit your stride.
Go teach the Bulldogs to behave,
Send the Yellow Jackets
to a watery grave.
And if a man starts to weaken,
That's a shame!
For Bama's pluck and grit have
Writ her name in Crimson flame.
Fight on, fight on, fight on men!
Remember the Rose Bowl,
we'll win then.
So roll on to victory,
Hit your stride,
You're Dixie's football pride,

COLLEGE FOOTBALL CAPITAL OF THE NATION

"When it comes to spring football spectacles, it doesn't get any bigger than Tuscaloosa, Alabama."

A-DAY PHENOMENON

Spring games across the country have taken on a whole new meaning since Alabama's A-Day Game sparked a new phenomenon in 2007 when an amazing 92,138 fans packed Bryant-Denny Stadium. Even more impressive were the 5,000-plus fans that were turned away at the gate and spent the afternoon tailgating around the stadium just like a fall Saturday when the stadium was deemed at capacity. Schools across the nation have followed the Tide's lead and begun working to make their spring games a focal point. ESPN has also taken notice of the spring game excitement and started making it part of the college football coverage each spring, evidenced by Chris Fowler, Todd Blackledge and Wendi Nix's appearance to last spring televise Alabama's A-Day Game, which saw 84,050 fans pack Bryant-Denny Stadium. Over the past three years the Crimson Tide has drawn a mind-boggling 254,388 fans for its annual A-Day Game.

Prior to the start of Alabama's A-Day Game each spring, the Crimson Tide's permanent team captains from the previous year are forever captured at the base of Denny Chimes. The captains have their hand prints and foot prints placed in cement to recognize their roles at team leaders. The 2008 captains were quarterback John Parker Wilson, safety Rashad Johnson and center Antoine Caldwell. Johnson and Caldwell were two of just eight players in school history to twice be named team captains.

THE NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT

Alabama has proven to be one of the top television draws in college football for its history, tradition, personalities and fans. The Crimson Tide was broadcast on national television 10 times last season and carried once on the regional SEC package. Further evidence was the presence of ESPN GameDay at four of Alabama's 2008 games, including Clemson, Georgia, LSU and Florida. Alabama's popularity has also been a draw for national publications. The Crimson Tide has been represented on the covers of three of those national publications in the past year, including Sports Illustrated, Forbes and Sporting News. The Tide's Glen Coffee graced the cover of Sports Illustrated following a 34-10 win over Clemson, head coach Nick Saban was featured on the cover of Forbes and the Crimson Tide program was the centerpiece of a photo essay by Sporting News. The Forbes cover was a first as Saban became the first college football coach to be featured on the cover since the publication began in 1917.

12 NATIONAL TITLES

AN UNMATCHED LEGACY

From the roaring 1920's and Wade Wallace through legendary coach Frank Thomas and on to the dynasty that was Paul "Bear" Bryant and most recently Gene Stallings' 1992 national championship team, the Alabama Crimson Tide have defined college football. The Crimson Tide has captured a college football-best 12 national championships and an impressive 21 conference titles, including 14 SEC titles. Bryant led the Tide to six national championships during his 25 years roaming the sidelines with national titles in 1961, 1964, 1965, 1973, 1978 and 1979. Wallace won Alabama's first three titles in 1925, 1926 and 1930. Thomas then led Alabama to championships in 1934 and 1941 while Stallings' 1992 team has proven to be one of the greatest in college football history.

THE FIRST TITLE

Alabama's football history has been about champions and the 1925 team garnered the first national title by posting a perfect 10-0 record and beating powerful Washington 20-19 in the Rose Bowl. It marked the first time a southern team had been to Pasadena and the locals appeared shocked with the Tide victory.

Senior stars Johnny Mack Brown and All-American Pooley Hubert mesmerized the crowds of the 1920s with their unique skills. Known as the "Dothan Antelope" Brown was the scourge of Bama foes. Brown scored on a 58-yard reception from Grant Gillis and a 62-yard catch from Hubert in the Rose Bowl win. In the win over Washington, Hubert also rushed for a touchdown and starred defensively. Both Brown and Hubert would become College Football Hall of Famers. Brown and guard Bill Buckler were also All-Southern Conference selections.

"PASADENA BOUND"

26

Four teams (Alabama, Stanford, Navy and Lafayette) had been declared winners of the national championship before the Crimson Tide reached Pasadena to play Stanford in the Rose Bowl. A 7-7 tie between the Southern and Western Conference champions did not settle any scores New Years Day, 1927.

The 1926 squad featured All-Americans Hoyt "Wu" Winslett and Fred Pickhard. Three other Alabama men, backs Ernie Barnes and Herschel Caldwell and center Gordon "Sherlock" Holmes joined them on the 11-member All-Southern Conference team.

Besides the Rose Bowl standoff against Stanford, Alabama's only other challenge came in a 2-0 tiff with then powerful Sewanne. A blocked punt that went out of the end zone by Pickhard proved to be the difference in the Sewanne contest. The very next week Pickhard blocked two punts, both resulting in touchdowns, in a 24-0 win over LSU. UA clinched a Rose Bowl berth with a 33-6 victory over Georgia on Thanksgiving Day.

A 10-0 season, along with a 24-0 whitewashing of Washington State in the Rose Bowl gave Wallace Wade his third championship and ended an era of Tide football on a glorious note. Extraordinary tackle Fred Sington finished an unmatched career as a student-athlete being unanimously picked to the All-America teams and earning Phi Beta Kappa honors for his toils in the classroom.

Halfback John Henry Suther joined Sington on the All-America list while super sophomore Johnny Cain and guard John Miller were All-Southern Conference picks.

Incredibly in the Rose Bowl, Wade defied logic by starting his second team, feeling his team was vastly superior to the West Coast Champions. Monk Campbell earned Rose Bowl MVP honors. Alabama shut out eight of its 10 foes with Tennessee (18-6) and Vanderbilt (12-7) holding the distinction of being the only teams to score on the 1930 Tide.

"MY BEST TEAM"

Frank Thomas candidly called it his best Alabama team and the 29-13 romp over Stanford in the Rose Bowl confirmed the coach's belief this team was special.

In an era where points were at a premium, Alabama averaged 31.4 a game while the opposition could manage but 4.5 a contest. Legendary Don Hutson, who, some 56 years later, would be named to the all-time college football team, displayed the skills that would one day earn him induction into seven different Halls of Fame (Alabama, Arkansas, Green Bay Packer, NFL, College, Helms Foundation and Wisconsin).

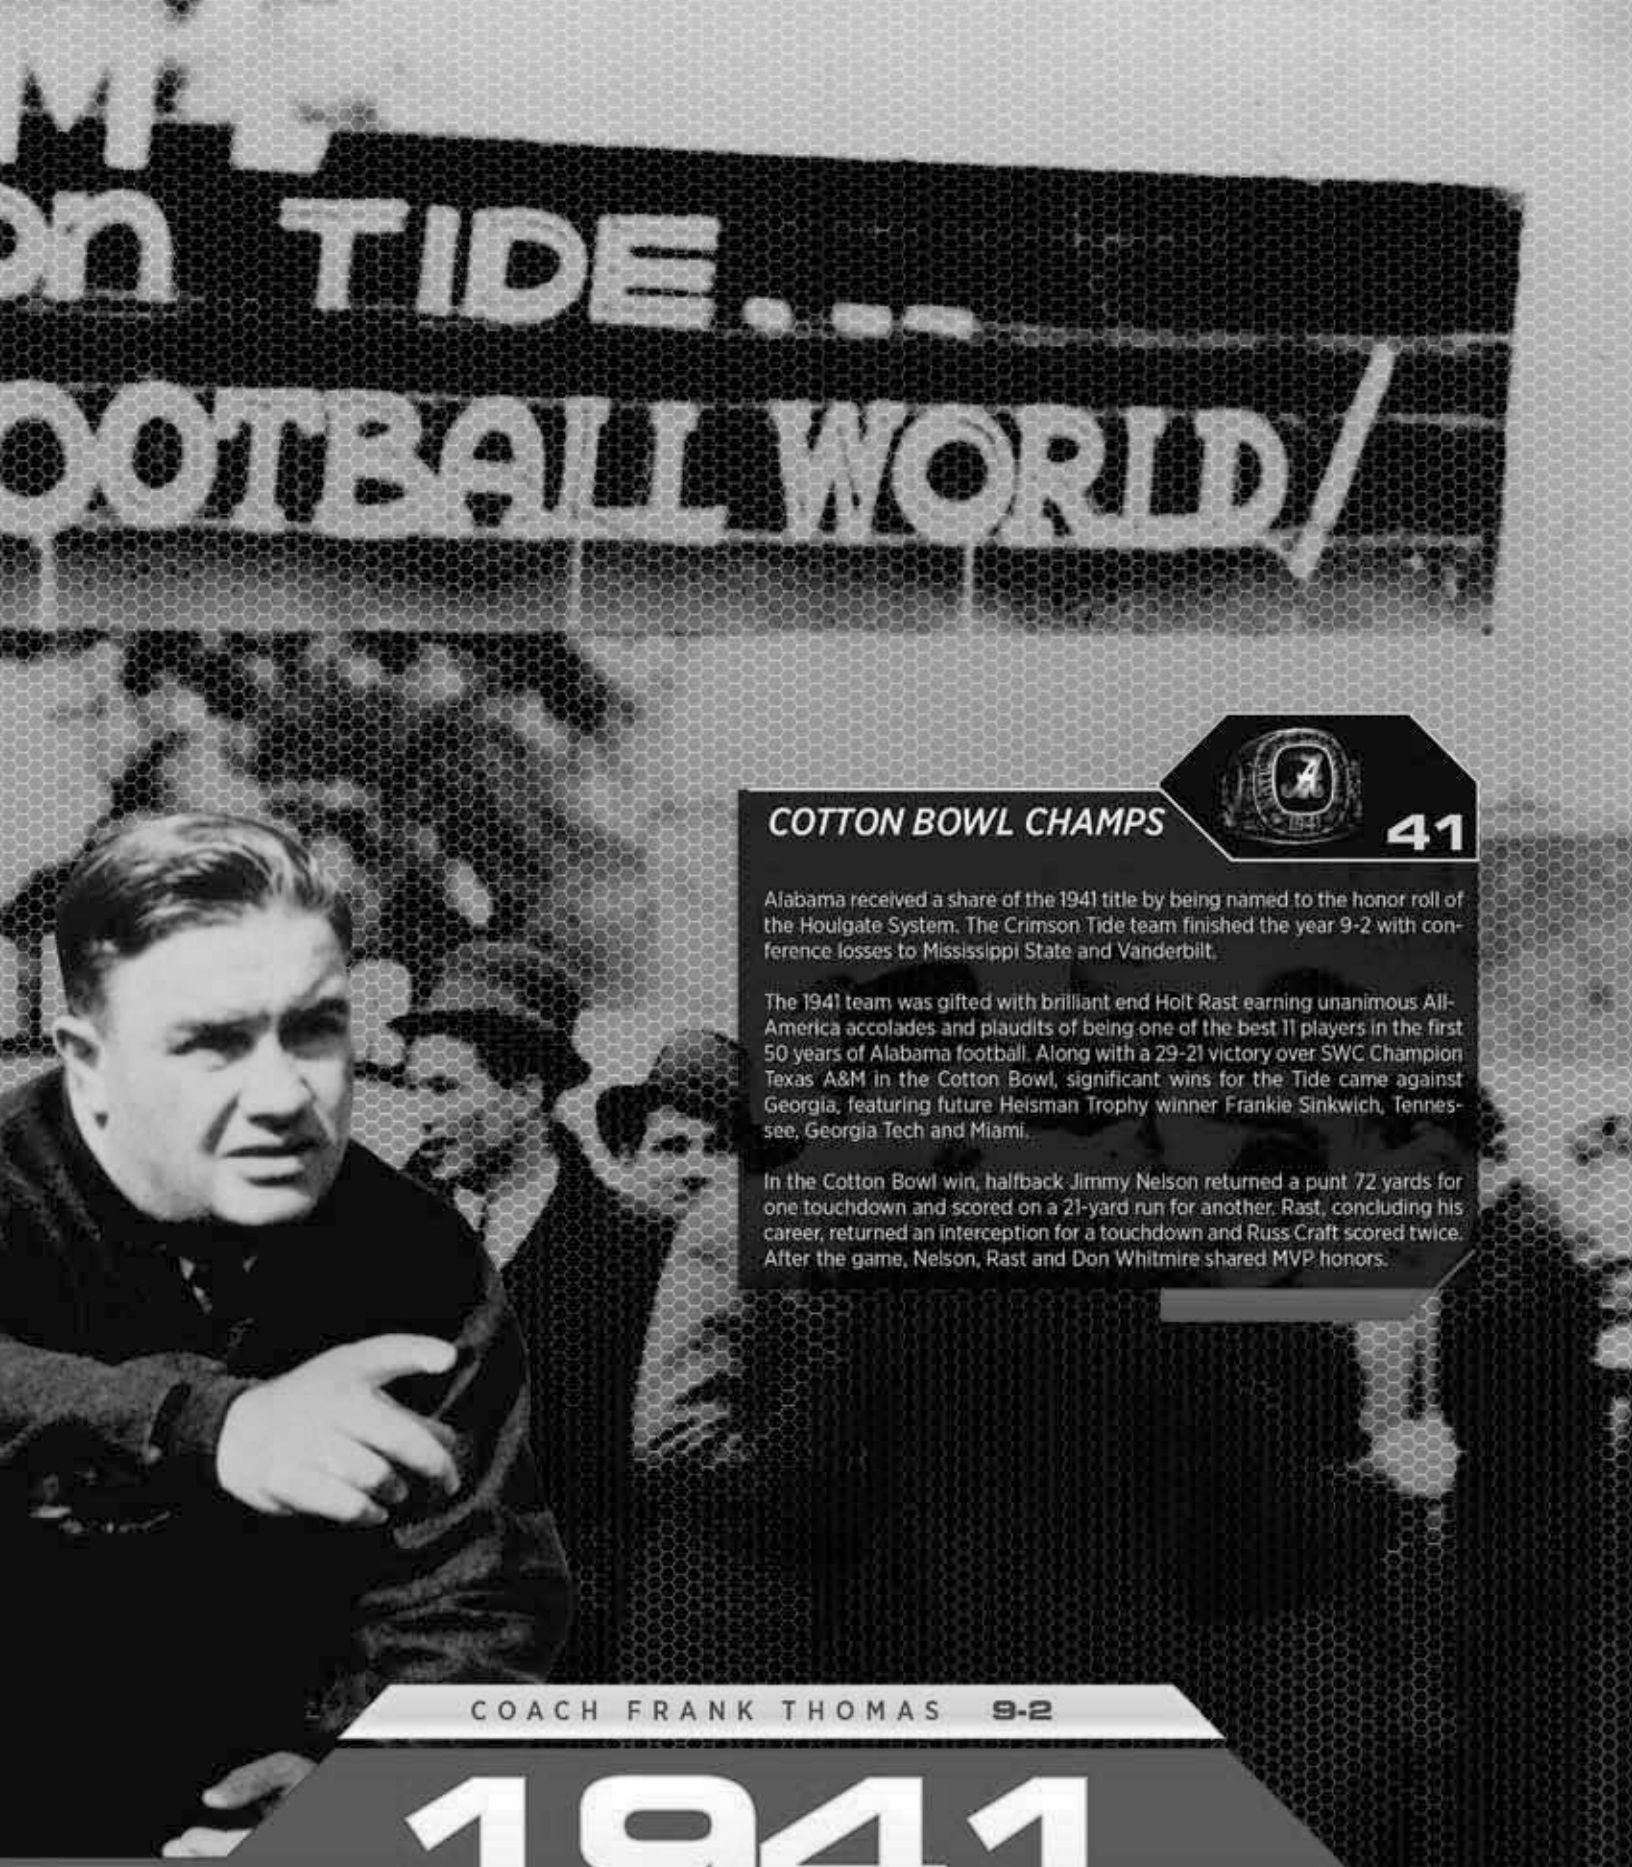

Tailback Dixie Howell and tackle Bill Lee joined Hutson as All-Americans. The only close game all year came in the annual heavyweight thriller with Tennessee, a 13-6 Crimson Tide win. Howell, Hutson, Lee and guard Charlie Marr earned All-SEC honors.

In the Rose Bowl, Howell scored two touchdowns, one on a scintillating 67-yard scamper. He also passed 59 yards to Hutson for another. For the game, he averaged 43.8 yards a punt, gained 111 rushing and 160 passing.

COTTON BOWL CHAMPS

Alabama received a share of the 1941 title by being named to the honor roll of the Houlgate System. The Crimson Tide team finished the year 9-2 with conference losses to Mississippi State and Vanderbilt.

The 1941 team was gifted with brilliant end Holt Rast earning unanimous All-America accolades and plaudits of being one of the best 11 players in the first 50 years of Alabama football. Along with a 29-21 victory over SWC Champion Texas A&M in the Cotton Bowl, significant wins for the Tide came against Georgia, featuring future Heisman Trophy winner Frankie Sinkwich, Tennessee, Georgia Tech and Miami.

In the Cotton Bowl win, halfback Jimmy Nelson returned a punt 72 yards for one touchdown and scored on a 21-yard run for another. Rast, concluding his career, returned an interception for a touchdown and Russ Craft scored twice. After the game, Nelson, Rast and Don Whitmire shared MVP honors.

SUGAR BOWL CHAMPS

As far-fetched as it sounded back when he was recruiting his first class four years before, Paul Bryant's promise of a national championship proved as accurate as his precise demand for excellence.

Led by quarterback Pat Trammell, center/linebacker Lee Roy Jordan and two-way line star Billy Neighbors, Alabama ascended to the pinnacle of the college football world, winning all 11 games and being named the No. 1 team in America.

Alabama outscored its foes 297-25 and after Tennessee managed a field goal in a 34-3 loss to the Tide, no one scored again until Arkansas equaled that three-point output in the Sugar Bowl. North Carolina State, led by future NFL star quarterback Roman Gabriel, fell to the Tide 26-7; the seven points were the most yielded to an opponent during the entire season.

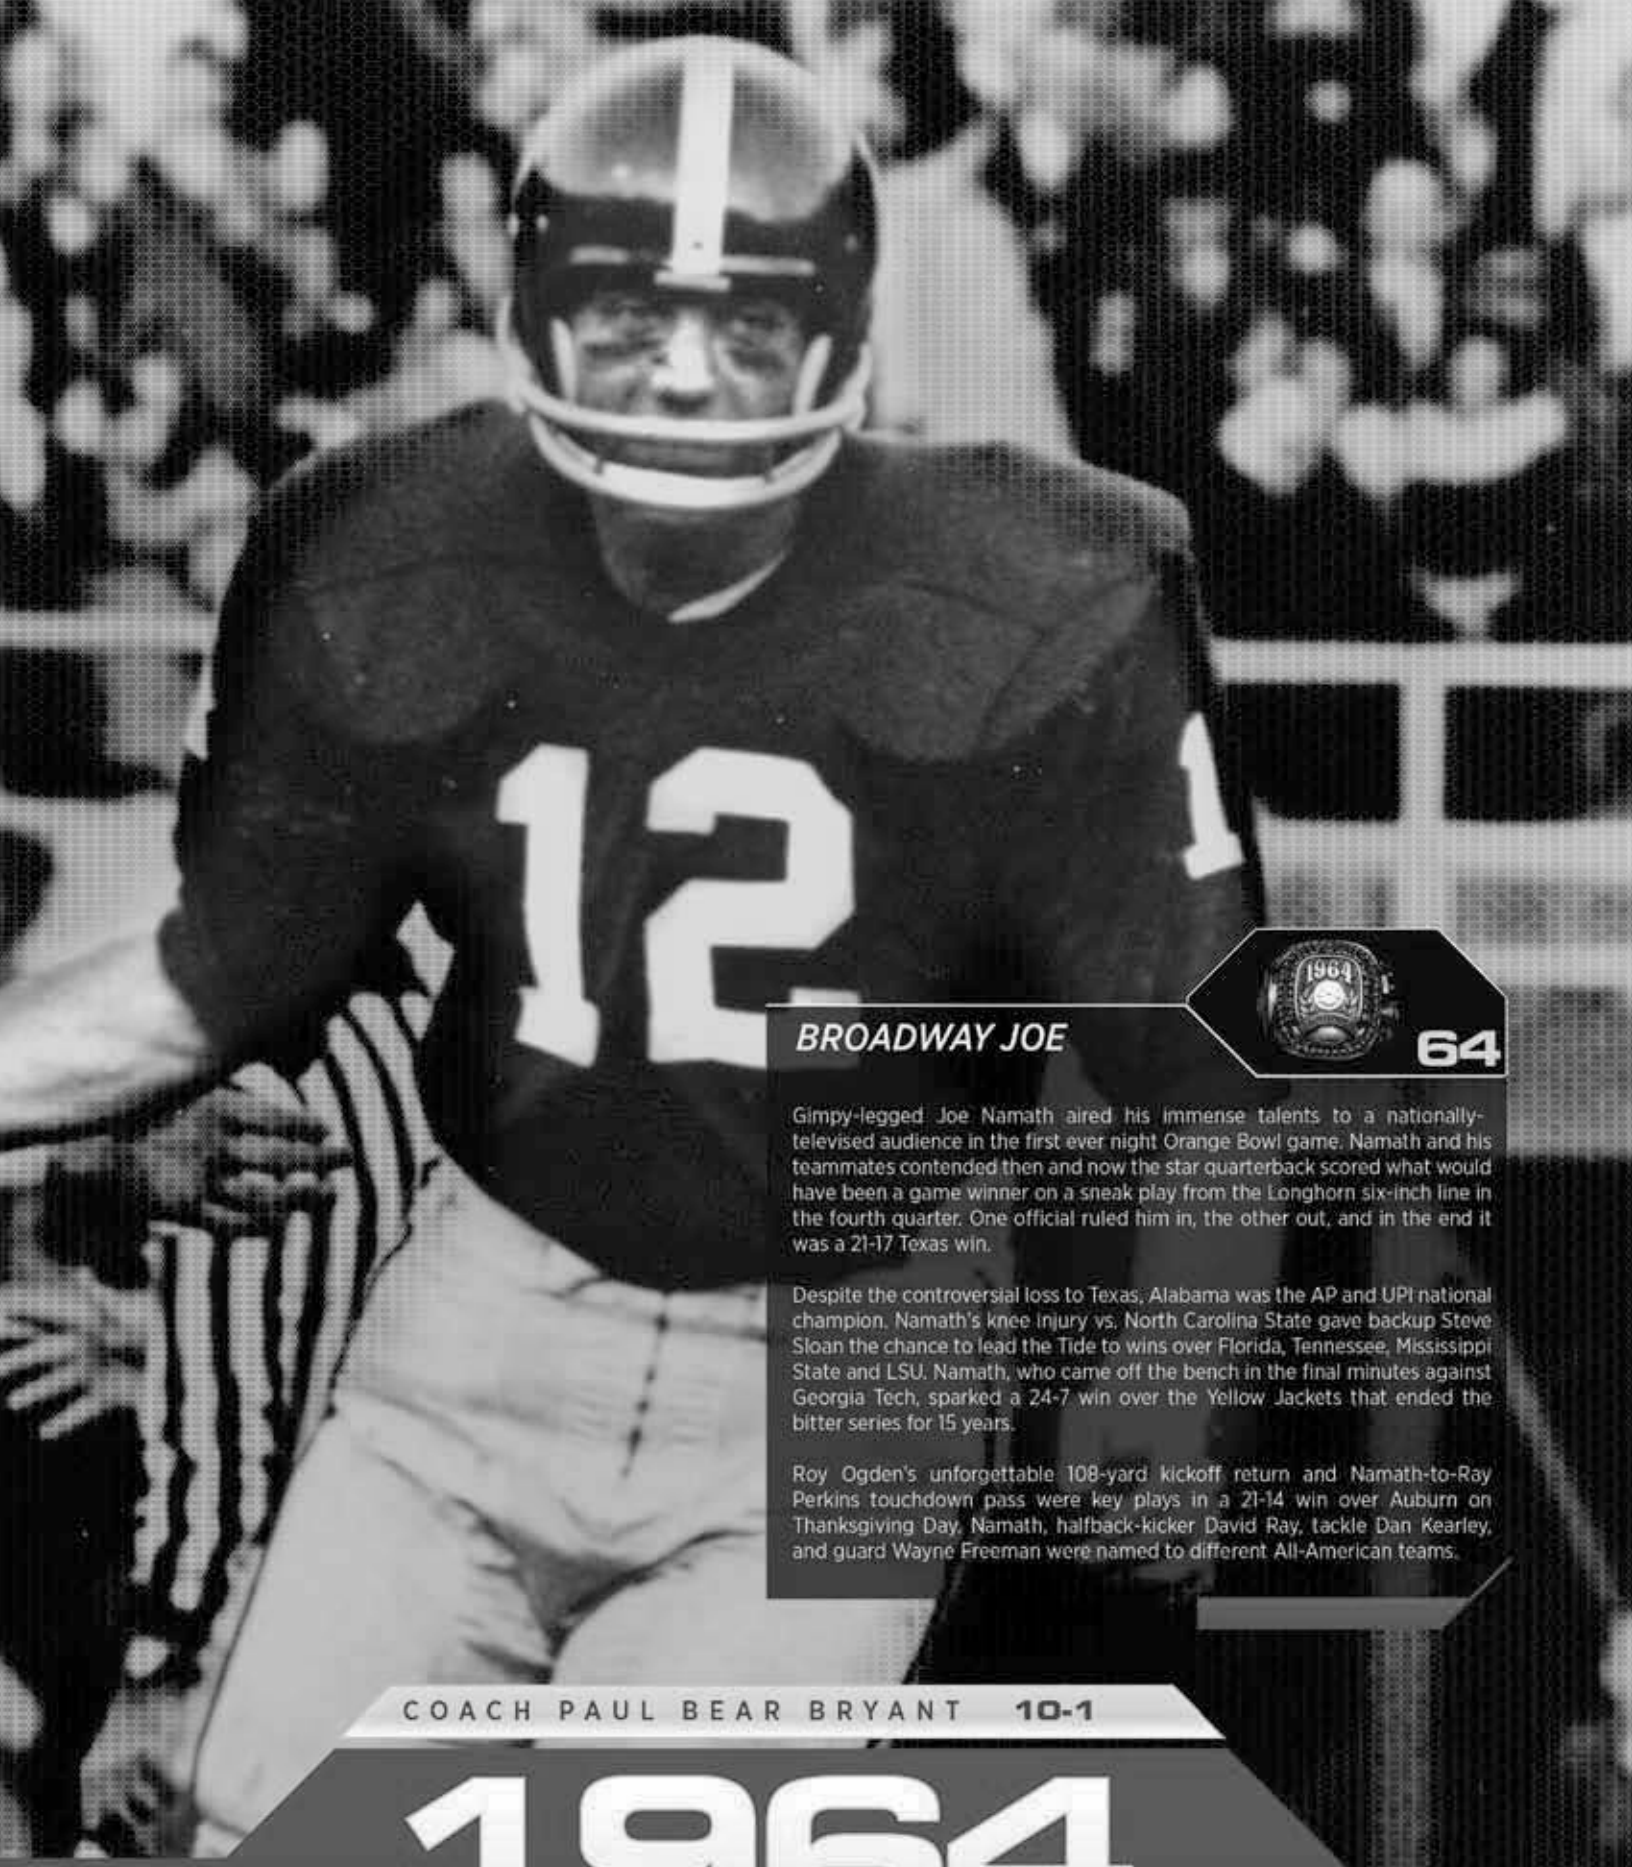

Neighbors was a unanimous All-America selection while Jordan and Trammell were second-team picks. It would be the first of six national title runs for Bryant during his 25-year career at Alabama.

SNAPSHOTS:

Lee Roy Jordan was a part of Paul Bear Bryant's first recruiting class that capped off their careers with the 1961 National Championship. A two-time All-America selection for the Crimson Tide, Jordan is considered the best inside linebacker in Alabama history.

BROADWAY JOE

Gimpy-legged Joe Namath aired his immense talents to a nationally-televised audience in the first ever night Orange Bowl game. Namath and his teammates contended then and now the star quarterback scored what would have been a game winner on a sneak play from the Longhorn six-inch line in the fourth quarter. One official ruled him in, the other out, and in the end it was a 21-17 Texas win.

Despite the controversial loss to Texas, Alabama was the AP and UPI national champion. Namath's knee injury vs. North Carolina State gave backup Steve Sloan the chance to lead the Tide to wins over Florida, Tennessee, Mississippi State and LSU. Namath, who came off the bench in the final minutes against Georgia Tech, sparked a 24-7 win over the Yellow Jackets that ended the bitter series for 15 years.

Roy Ogden's unforgettable 108-yard kickoff return and Namath-to-Ray Perkins touchdown pass were key plays in a 21-14 win over Auburn on Thanksgiving Day. Namath, halfback-kicker David Ray, tackle Dan Kearley, and guard Wayne Freeman were named to different All-American teams.

FINISH STRONG

The 1965 edition of the Alabama Crimson Tide got off to a slow start, losing its first game of the season to Georgia 18-17. However, the Crimson Tide quickly rebounded with wins over Tulane, Ole Miss and Vanderbilt. Alabama finished off the season with a 30-3 thumping of in-state rival Auburn. This victory also gave the Crimson Tide the SEC title, their second in a row.

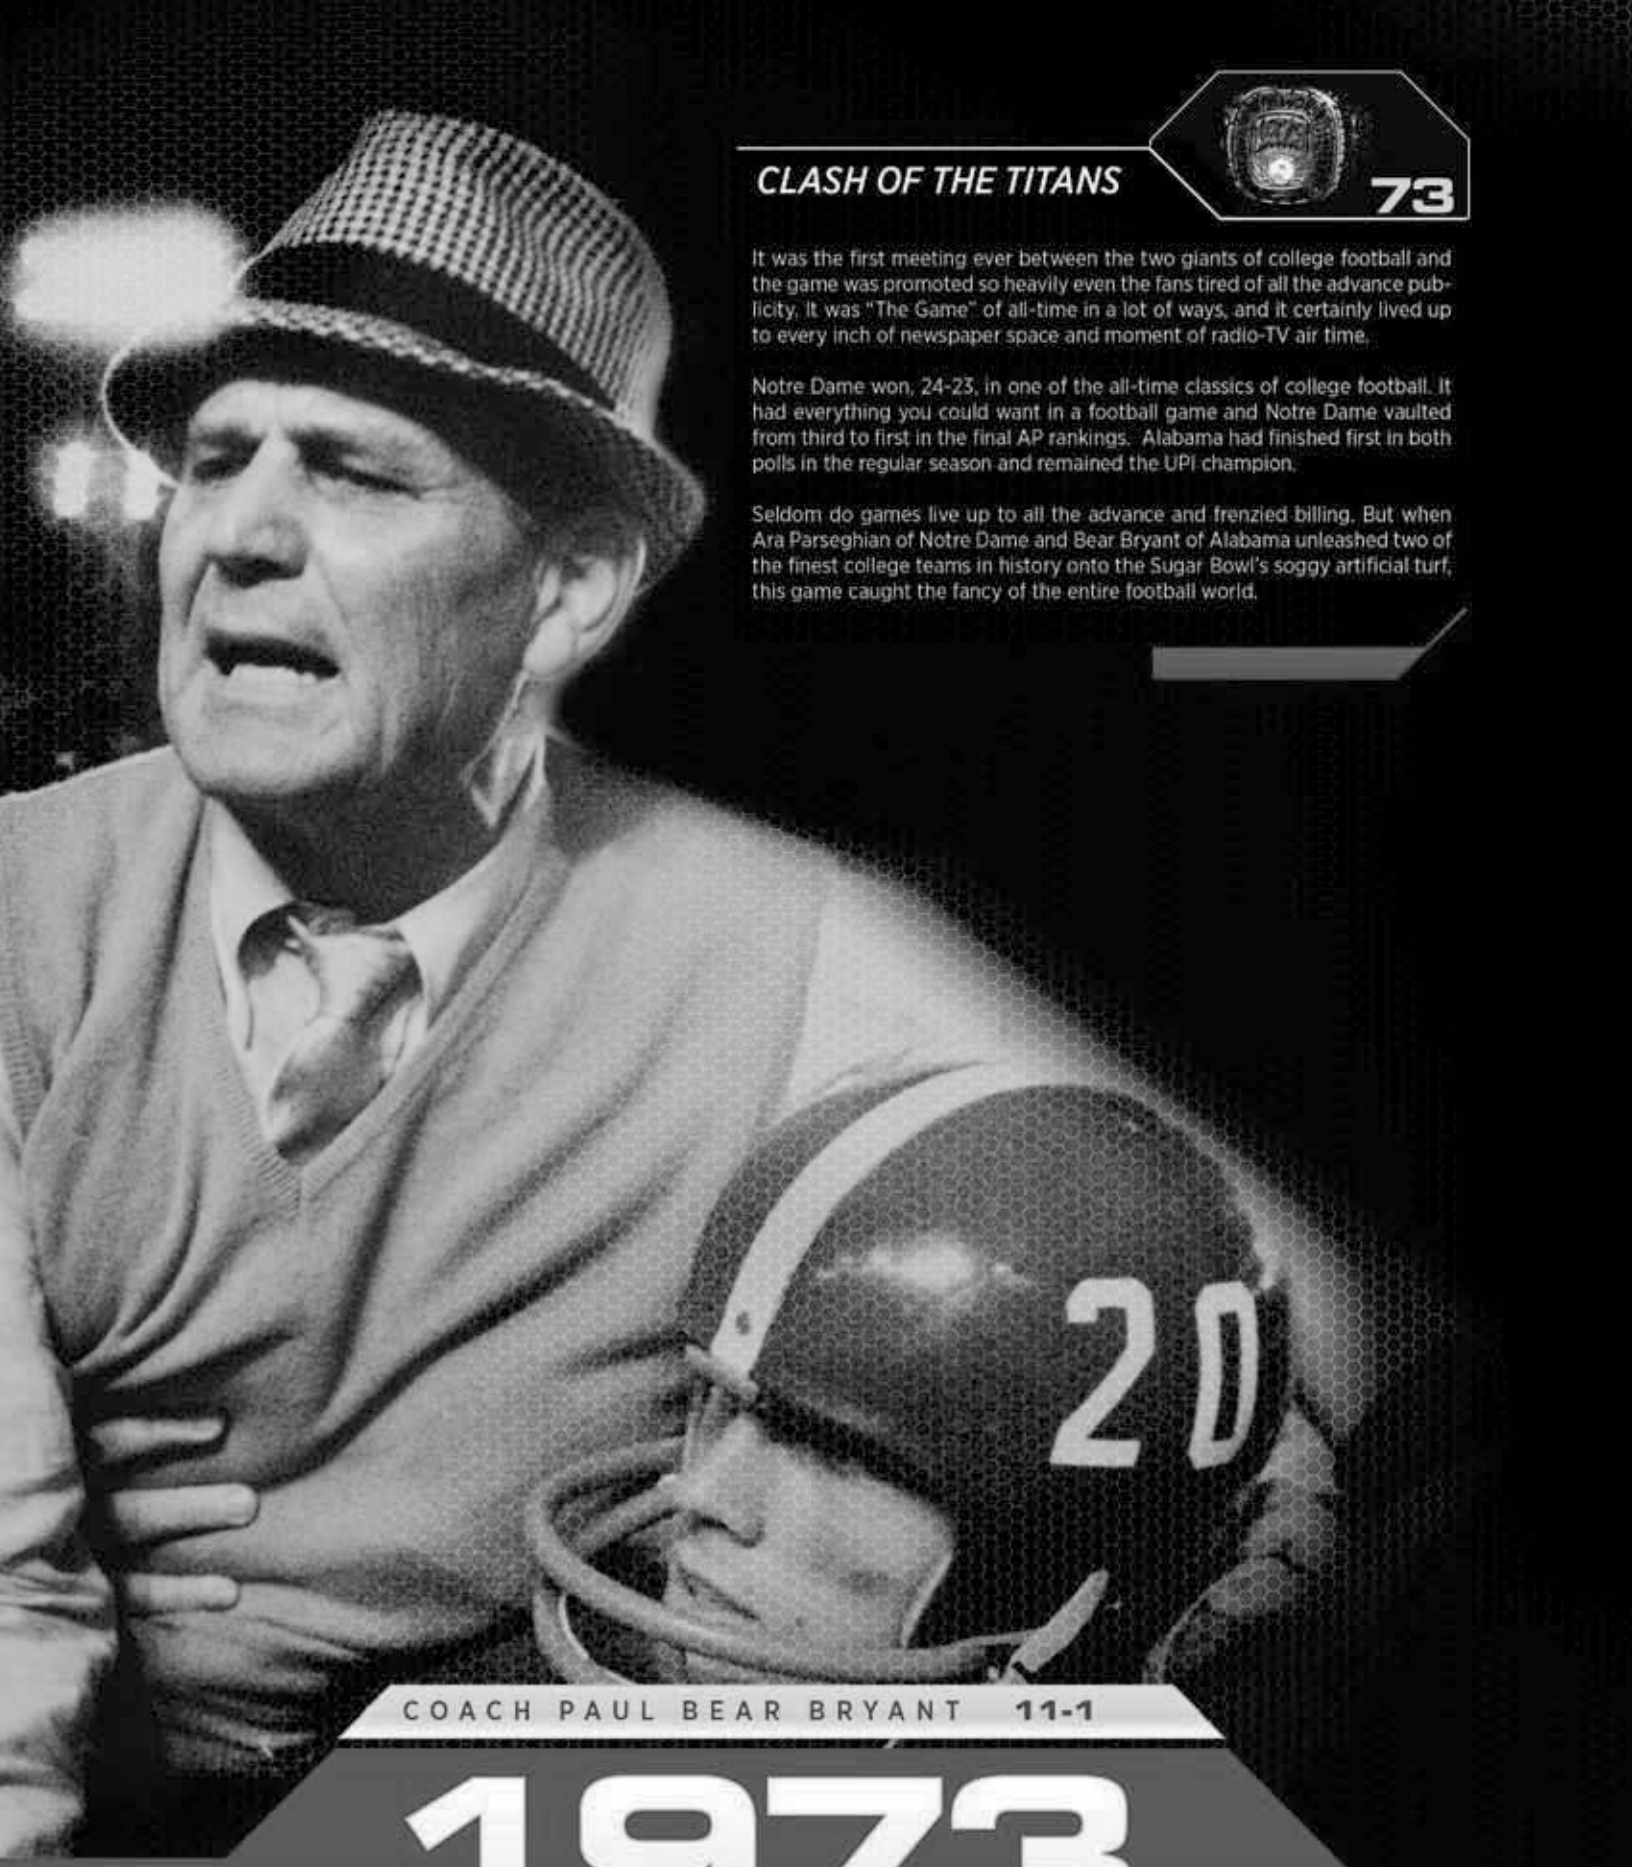

The Crimson Tide's season earned them a No. 4 ranking and an invitation to the 1966 Orange Bowl where they would face the Nebraska Cornhuskers. The national title seemed a long shot for both teams but with number one Michigan State falling to UCLA in the Rose Bowl and number two Arkansas losing to LSU in the Cotton Bowl earlier in the day, it appeared that the outcome of the Orange Bowl would decide the national champion.

The two teams traded blows for much of the game but the arm of Steve Sloan proved too much for the Huskers. Sloan went 20-of-28 passing to break the Orange Bowl pass completion record set just one year earlier by fellow Tide quarterback Joe Namath. Sloan finished the game with 296 passing yards, also setting an Orange Bowl standard and giving Alabama a 39-28 victory and the 1965 national championship.

CLASH OF THE TITANS

It was the first meeting ever between the two giants of college football and the game was promoted so heavily even the fans tired of all the advance publicity. It was "The Game" of all-time in a lot of ways, and it certainly lived up to every inch of newspaper space and moment of radio-TV air time.

Notre Dame won, 24-23, in one of the all-time classics of college football. It had everything you could want in a football game and Notre Dame vaulted from third to first in the final AP rankings. Alabama had finished first in both polls in the regular season and remained the UPI champion.

Seldom do games live up to all the advance and frenzied billing. But when Ara Parseghian of Notre Dame and Bear Bryant of Alabama unleashed two of the finest college teams in history onto the Sugar Bowl's soggy artificial turf, this game caught the fancy of the entire football world.

GOAL LINE STAND 78

Coach Bryant's 1978 Alabama Crimson Tide squad started off the season with a convincing 20-3 win over the Nebraska Cornhuskers in front of a packed house in Birmingham. Alabama would go on to win 11 games in '78. The only loss of the season came at the hands of the USC Trojans in Birmingham in a 28-14 battle. Alabama then tore through eight straight opponents on its way to a No. 2 ranking and a bid to play in the 1979 Sugar Bowl against Joe Paterno's No. 1-ranked Penn State Nittany Lions.

The game was close and physical all the way to the end with Alabama outgaining Penn State on the ground 208-19 and Penn State outgaining Alabama through the air 163-91. Crimson Tide running back Major Ogilvie was quoted after the game as saying, "It was, by far, the hardest hitting game I've participated in. There's not even a close second."

Alabama secured the win and the national championship on one of the most legendary plays in Crimson Tide history. On a fourth down and inches play from just outside the Alabama goal line Joe Paterno called on tailback Matt Guman to take the ball up the middle into the heart of the Crimson Tide defense. He was met head on by a host of Alabama defenders led by All-American linebacker Barry Krauss who stopped Guman just shy of the goal line to lock up the 14-7 Sugar Bowl victory and the national title.

BACK-TO-BACK 79

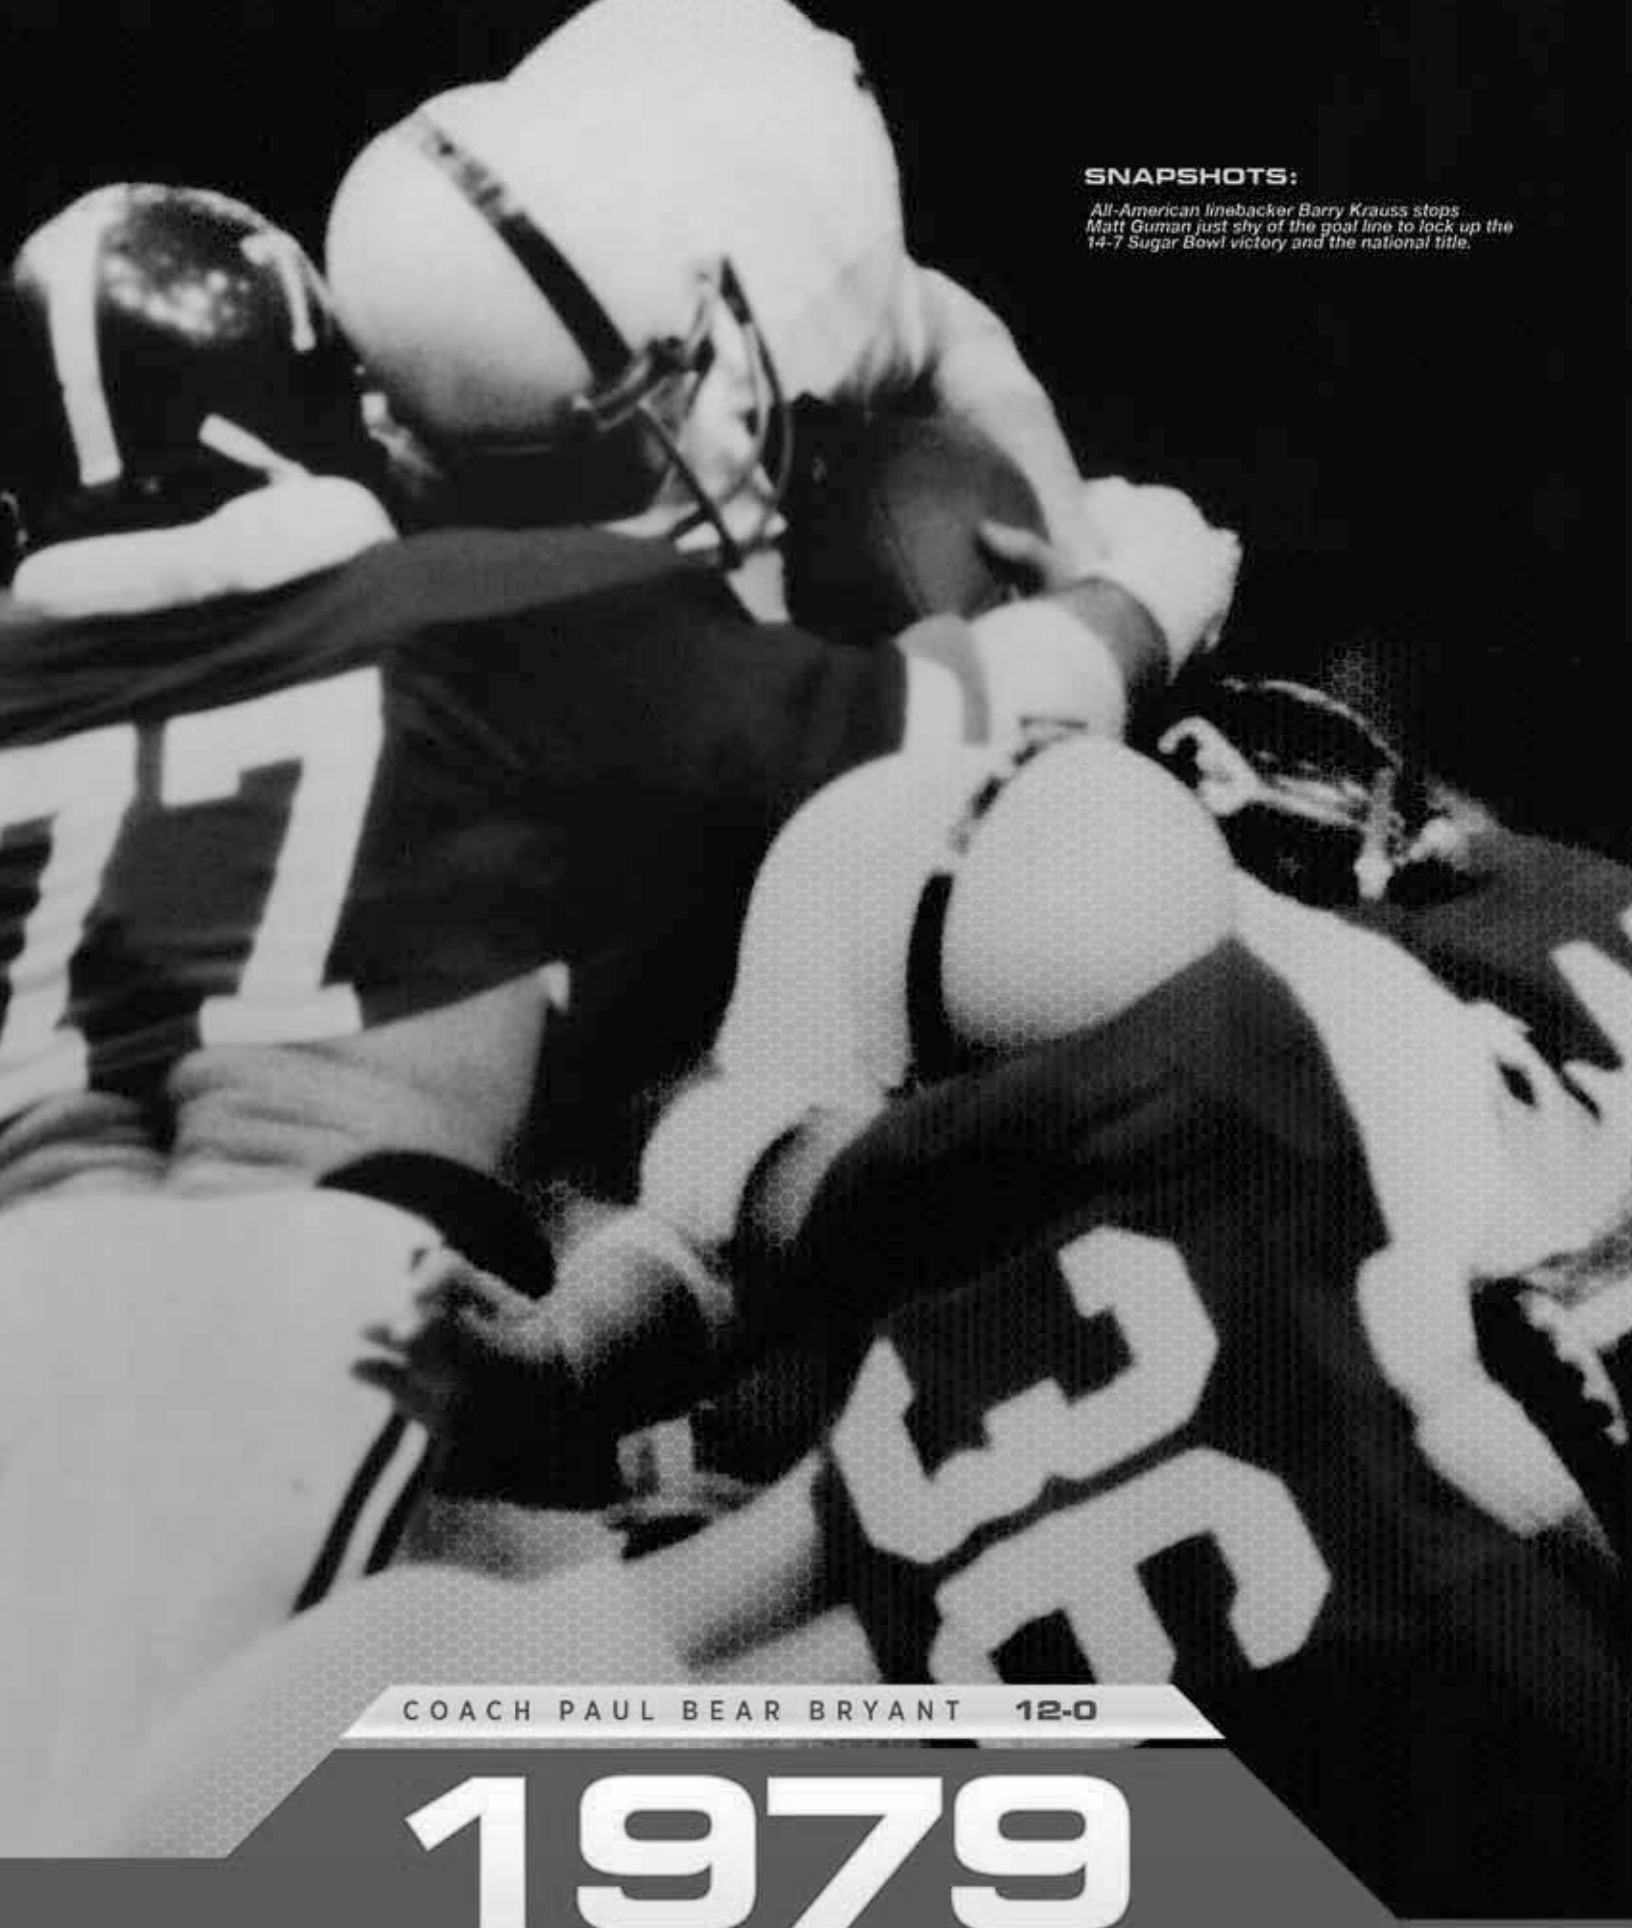

The 1979 Alabama Crimson Tide was fierce to say the least. Alabama's defense posted shutouts against Baylor, Wichita State, Florida, LSU and Miami. Alabama outscored five of its opponents on the season by 30 points or more, the biggest margin of victory coming against Vanderbilt in a 66-3 game. Alabama capped off the undefeated regular season by beating Auburn 25-18 and Miami 30-0.

After its perfect 11-0 regular season, Coach Bryant's Crimson Tide team returned to the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans again for the second straight year. This time the Crimson Tide would face its future SEC West rival in the University of Arkansas Razorbacks, who were then a part of the Southwest Conference.

Alabama was led by running back Major Ogilvie as the Tide outgained the Razorbacks 284-97 in rushing yards. Ogilvie scored two touchdowns in a 24-9 victory that gave the Crimson Tide its 11th national title and Coach Bryant his sixth and final championship.

HIGH TIDE

Head Coach Gene Stallings' Crimson Tide team was led in the 1992 season by a tenacious defense that held 10 of its 13 opponents to 11 points or less. The offense was led by the arm of quarterback Jay Barker who threw for 1,614 yards and the legs of running back Derrick Lassic who ran for 905 yards on the season. The Alabama defense had 22 interceptions on the year, defensive backs Antonio Langham and George Teague were tied atop the list with six each.

The Crimson Tide started off the season with a 25-8 win over SEC rival Vanderbilt and continued this winning streak all the way to the Sugar Bowl. Some of the highlights of this perfect season were a 17-10 victory over Tennessee, a 17-0 win against in state rival Auburn and a 28-21 win over Steve Spurrier's Florida Gators in the SEC Championship game.

Alabama's perfect regular season record led them to a No. 2 ranking and another visit to the Sugar Bowl to face 1992 Heisman Trophy winning quarterback Geno Torretta and the No. 1-ranked Miami Hurricanes. The Crimson Tide was a heavy underdog to the boisterous Miami team. However, from the opening kickoff to the final whistle Alabama dominated the Hurricanes and their Heisman winning quarterback leading to a 34-13 victory, a perfect 13-0 season and the Crimson Tide's 12th national championship.

Brown helped the Tide win the first Rose Bowl in 1926. He was on the receiving end of two touchdown passes, one a 58-yard strike from Grant Gillis and the other a 62-yard strike from Pooley Hubert. After college, he went on to star in Hollywood in several major motion pictures with some of the biggest stars in the business.

WOODROW LOWE 2009

Former Alabama linebacker Woodrow Lowe was selected to the 2009 class of the College Football Hall of Fame. Lowe was one of the Crimson Tide's all-time great linebackers, playing for legendary coach Paul "Bear" Bryant from 1972-75. He is one of just two Alabama players to be named a three-time All-American, earning the honor from 1973-75.

Lowe becomes the 21st Alabama player to be selected into the College Football Hall of Fame, joining UA greats such as Bryant, Cornelius Bennett, John Hannah, Frank Howard, Lee Roy Jordan, Johnny Musso and Ozzie Newsome. Lowe, the 1973 Churchman's National Defensive Sophomore of the Year, set the Alabama single-season record with 134 tackles during that season, a mark that still stands today. That season the Crimson Tide played in the Sugar Bowl and was named the UPI National Champions.

As a junior in 1974, Lowe earned consensus All-America honors and led the Crimson Tide to a third straight SEC title and a berth in the Orange Bowl. As a senior in 1975, Lowe again earned first-team All-America honors and served as team captain for the Crimson Tide as Alabama captured its fourth straight SEC title and a trip to the Sugar Bowl where they beat Penn State, 13-6.

Lowe was Alabama's all-time leading tackler with 315 when he finished his career in 1975 and still ranks third in career stops at the Capstone. Following his senior season, Lowe played in the 1976 Senior Bowl and entered the NFL Draft where he was selected in the fifth round by the San Diego Chargers. He missed only one game in 11 seasons with the Chargers and tallied 21 interceptions while returning four for touchdowns.

FROM TUSCALOOSA TO THE LEAGUE.

PIPELINE

The University of Alabama football program has a long tradition of producing National Football League players. Former Crimson Tide greats Don Hutson, John Hannah, Joe Namath, Ozzie Newsome, Bart Starr and Dwight Stephenson are enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Names such as Shaun Alexander, Cornelius Bennett, Chris Samuels, Derrick Thomas and Kenny Stabler have starred on the NFL gridiron after their career at Alabama. Recently, linebacker Demeco Ryans was the 2006 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year and a 2008 Pro Bowl selection. Alabama sent Andre Smith (1st Round), Glen Coffee (3rd Round), Antoine Caldwell (3rd Round) and Rashad Johnson (3rd Round) to the NFL in the spring of 2009.

READY TO WORK:

Former Alabama Running Back Glen Coffee looks to make an immediate impact in the NFL after being drafted in the third round of the 2009 NFL Draft by the San Francsico 49ers.

DEMECO
RYANS
59

Ryans earned consensus All-America and All-SEC honors in 2005 after finishing his career as one of the Tide's most decorated players on and off the field. He was the recipient of the Lott Trophy and was a four-time Academic All-SEC selection after graduating in just seven semesters. He closed his collegiate career with 307 career tackles, fifth on the Tide's all-time list. The Texans got a steal when they chose DeMeco Ryans as the first pick of the second round in the 2006 NFL Draft.

NFL DRAFT

The format of the NFL draft has changed many times since the first draft of players on February 8, 1936, at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel in Philadelphia. The first player chosen was Heisman Trophy winner Jay Berwanger from the University of Chicago. But Berwanger never signed with either the Eagles, who selected him, or the Bears, after they traded for his rights. Instead, the first player drafted who did play, was actually the number two pick, halfback Riley Smith of Alabama, who was selected by the Boston Redskins. Here, courtesy of the NFL, is a listing of Alabama players who have been drafted by the NFL. Listed is the player's name, team and selection/round taken/overall pick.

ANDRE SMITH
71

Andre Smith became the second Alabama player to win the Outland Trophy, which goes to the nation's top interior lineman or linebacker. He also garnered unanimous All-America honors in 2008 as the Crimson Tide finished with a 12-2 record and a trip to the Sugar Bowl. Smith was then taken with the sixth overall pick of the 2009 NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals, becoming the first Alabama player since 2000 to be taken in the first round.

STABLER 12

Kenny Stabler garnered All-America honors in 1967 and was a second-round selection of the Oakland Raiders in the 1968 NFL Draft. The "Snake" played on Crimson Tide teams that compiled a 28-3-2 record that included a perfect 11-0 season in 1966 with a 34-7 win over Nebraska in the Orange Bowl. In his senior season of 1967, Stabler was named SEC Player of the Year by the Birmingham Quarterback Club and the Atlanta Touchdown Club. In 1992, Stabler and Joe Namath were selected as quarterbacks on the Tide's All-Century team.

GEORGE
31 TEAGUE

George Teague was a first-round pick - 29th overall - of the Green Bay Packers in the 1993 NFL Draft. He went on to play nine seasons in the NFL with the Packers, Miami Dolphins and Dallas Cowboys. Teague was a two-time All-SEC selection for the Crimson Tide and famous for his interception return for a touchdown in the 1993 Sugar Bowl that helped secure the Tide's 12th national championship.

HALL OF FAME

ALABAMA PLAYERS IN THE PRO FOOTBALL

DON HUTSON
1963

GREEN BAY PACKERS 1935-45
ALABAMA 1932-34

Don Hutson could outmaneuver and outrace virtually every defender in the league. He led the NFL in receiving in eight of his 11 seasons and in scoring five straight years. Twice, in 1941 and 1942, he was named the league's MVP.

When Hutson retired in 1945 after 11 superb seasons, he held 18 NFL records, including 488 career receptions.

BART STARR
1977

GREEN BAY PACKERS 1956-1971
ALABAMA 1952-55

Bart Starr was a 17th-round draft choice of the Green Bay Packers in 1956. Three years later, his playing time was still limited and his football future appeared in doubt. That's when Vince Lombardi took over as the Packers coach, an event that may have saved Starr's NFL career.

Lombardi, in tireless study of films, found that he liked Bart's mechanics, his arm, his ball-handling techniques and, most of all, his decision-making abilities. Under Vince's careful nurturing, Starr gained the confidence to become one of the NFL's great field leaders.

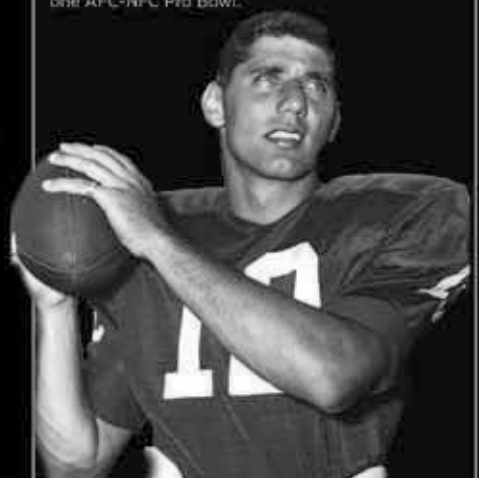

JOE NAMATH
1985

NEW YORK JETS 1965-1976
ALABAMA 1962-44

Joe Namath is best remembered for his performance in the New York Jets' stunning 16-7 upset of the heavily favored Baltimore Colts in Super Bowl III. However, during his 13-year tenure from 1965 through 1977 he was one of the game's most exciting, proficient and publicized quarterbacks.

Namath earned all-league accolades four times in his career (1967, 1968, 1969, and 1972) and was named to the all-time AFL honor team in 1969. He was also elected to four AFL all-star games and one AFC-NFC Pro Bowl.

The Kansas City Chiefs selected linebacker Derrick Thomas as the fourth player overall in the 1989 National Football League Draft. A consensus All-America and Dick Butkus Award winner at Alabama, Thomas excelled as a pass rusher who set the school record for sacks.

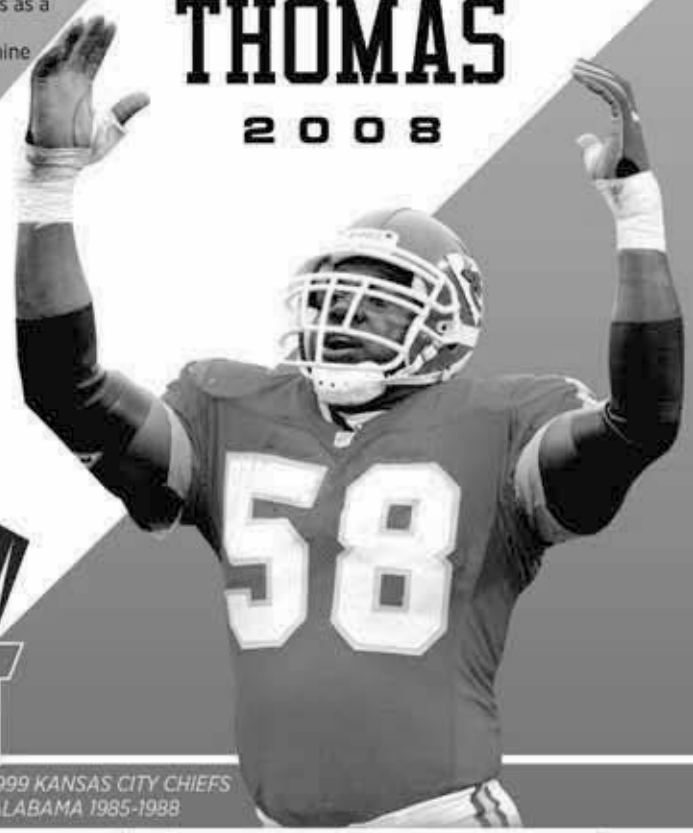

His pass rushing specialty continued on the professional level as he amassed 10 sacks as a rookie for the Chiefs in 1989. He also added 75 tackles that season to earn Defensive Rookie of the Year honors. Following the season, Thomas was named to the first of nine straight Pro Bowls.

His extraordinary pass rushing skills continued throughout his 11-season career that was tragically cut short by his death following an automobile accident shortly after the 1999 NFL regular season.

No player amassed more sacks during the decade of 1990s than the 116.5 sacks by Thomas. He finished his career with 126.5 sacks which was the fourth-highest total by a linebacker in NFL history. Thomas had 10 or more sacks in a season seven times and recorded multi-sack games 27 times during his 169-game career.

His contribution to the Chiefs franchise was nearly immeasurable. Prior to his arrival in Kansas City, the team had made just one playoff appearance since 1971. In the 11 years that Thomas anchored the defense, the Chiefs finished first or second in the AFC West ten times, made seven playoff appearances, and won three division titles.

NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS 1973-1985
ALABAMA 1970-72

John Hannah, a 6-2, 265-pound guard from Alabama, was the first-round pick of the New England Patriots and the fourth player selected in the 1973 National Football League Draft. He was an eight-letterman star in football, track and wrestling and a two-time grid All-America at Alabama.

John finished his career after the 1985 season on a high note. His final campaign had produced an AFC championship and Super Bowl XX appearance for the Patriots, and All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl invitation for himself.

DWIGHT
STEPHENSON
1998

MIAMI DOLPHINS 1980-1987
ALABAMA 1977-79

Dwight Stephenson, who was born November 20, 1957, in Murfreesboro, North Carolina, was quiet, intense, hard-working and competitive offensive lineman out of the University of Alabama. He was an exceptionally quick blocker and he possessed an explosive charge off the snap. He was the Dolphins offensive captain and his presence as the anchor of the offensive line was a major factor in the Dolphins' record of allowing the fewest quarterback sacks in the NFL for six straight years.

CLEVELAND BROWNS 1978-1990
ALABAMA 1974-77

Throughout his 13-season, 198-game NFL career with the Cleveland Browns from 1978 to 1990, Ozzie Newsome was a fixture at tight end, a true team leader in every respect, and one of only five players in Browns history to play in parts of three decades.

Nicknamed the "Wizard of Oz," Newsome became the leading tight end receiver in NFL history with 662 receptions for 7,980 yards and 47 touchdowns. He ranked as the fourth leading receiver when he retired.

FORMER ALABAMA RUNNING BACK

Scouts from across the country find their way to The University of Alabama campus every year to test the agility, speed and power of the Crimson Tide players. Every player wanting to make it to the next level performs for the scouts in hopes of fulfilling their dream of playing in the NFL.

In hopes of taking their careers to the next level, 10 former Alabama players had an opportunity to prove to scouts they were ready for the NFL.

On March 11th, all 32 NFL teams were represented at Alabama's Pro Day in Tuscaloosa. Media members were also in attendance, including the NFL Network and host Charles Davis. Members of the Crimson Tide spent the day with physical testing as well as interviews. Workouts started off in the weight room where each player was measured for height and weight, bench press repetitions at 225 pounds, as well as the vertical jump and broad jump. Some players who worked out in Indianapolis chose to go with their combine results.

After the weight room, media, scouts, players, and staff headed to the UA indoor facility. Players were given the chance to run the 40 and demonstrate position drills. This gave NFL scouts and coaches a chance look at, in detail, each player and evaluate their performance at their specific position.

KNOW THE RULES

Some FAQ when dealing with Student-Athletes

WHO IS A REPRESENTAIVE OF ALABAMA INTERESTS?

Someone who:

- Has ever made any type of financial or in-kind contribution to the athletics department, to a specific sport program or to an athletics boosterorganization,including purchasing donor seating to athletics events (i.e., Tide Pride Football or Tide Pride Basketball)
- Is or has been a member of any organization or agency promoting University of Alabama athletics (i.e., Red Elephant Club, Grand Slammers, etc.);
- as ever helped to arrange or has provided employment for an enrolled student-athlete, a prospective student-athlete or their parents or relatives;
- Has ever assisted in any manner in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes;
- Has ever provided benefits to enrolled student-athletes or their families or to prospective student-athletes or their families;
- Has otherwise promoted the institution's athletics program in any manner.

WHAT ABOUT RECRUITING?

As a representative of Alabama's athletics' interests, you may not:

- contact a prospect's coach, principal or counselor in an effort to evaluate a prospect
- visit the prospect's institution to pick up film or transcripts pertaining to the evaluation of the prospect's academic eligibility or athletic ability
- contact a prospect, his/her parents, legal guardians or spouse on or off the Alabama campus
- contact a prospect by telephone or by letter
- make special arrangements for entertainment for recruiting purposes
- provide reduced cost products or services to a prospect

WHO IS A PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETE?

NCAA rules stipulate that a prospective student-athlete is a person who has started classes for the ninth (9th) grade, regardless of his/her athletics ability.

A prospective student-athlete remains a prospect even after he or she has signed a National Letter of Intent or accepts an offer of financial aid to attend The University of Alabama until he/she reports for the first day of classes for a regular term (fall

WHAT ABOUT STUDENT-ATHLETE APPEARANCES & PROMOTIONS?

Student-athletes are prohibited from being involved in the advertisement, recommendation or promotion of sales or use of any commercial product or service of any kind. All charitable, educational and nonprofit promotional activities involving student-athletes must have prior approval from the athletics department. All student-athlete appearances for such events are coordinated through Bama's Life Skills Office. For information, please call (205) 348-6618.

WHAT ABOUT STUDENT-ATHLETE EMPLOYMENT?

Student-athletes receiving athletics grants-in-aid will be eligible for employment during the regular academic year. Student-athletes will continue to be eligible for employment during the University's official vacation periods (i.e., Christmas, Spring Break) and during the summer. Very detailed rules regarding which student-athletes may be employed, when and how much money they can earn must be followed. In addition, the Compliance Office must keep written records verifying all student-athlete employment. If you have an interest in hiring a student-athlete, you must first contact the University's Compliance Office prior to employing the student-athlete. Failure to contact the Compliance Office prior to employing a student-athlete could jeopardize the student-athlete's eligibility to participate in intercollegiate athletics at Alabama and could result in an NCAA violation for the student-athlete's sport.

WHAT ARE THE RULES GOVERNING GAMBLING?

A student-athlete, coach and/or employee of The University of Alabama may not provide information to individuals involved in any type of organized gambling concerning sporting events. In addition, student- athletes, coaches and employees of The University of Alabama may not solicit or accept any wager on any intercollegiate or professional athletics contest.

WHAT ARE EXTRA BENEFITS?

NCAA legislation expressly prohibits University supporters from providing "extra benefits" to student-athletes. An extra benefit is any special arrangement to provide a student-athlete or his/her family a benefit not authorized by NCAA legislation. In general, you may not provide anything or make special arrangements for student-athletes or prospective student-athletes that are not available to the general student population.

CRIMSON TIDE SPORTS MARKETING

When Nick Saban's Crimson Tide rolls, Bama fans will hear all the action on the Crimson Tide Sports Network (CTSN). More than 50 radio stations in Alabama and around the south will broadcast Alabama football games in 2009. CTSN is a joint venture of Learfield Communications and International Sports Properties.

For the 20th football season, the voice of the Tide will be Eli Gold. A nationally known sportscaster, Eli is also the host of "NASCAR Live", a weekly, nationally syndicated radio call-in show. He has also done play-by-play for NFL, Arena Football League and NHL games on radio and television.

Former Alabama assistant Phil Savage will join the network as the color analyst. A Mobile native, Savage has extensive NFL experience, as an assistant coach with the Cleveland Browns (under defensive coordinator Nick Saban), Director of Player Personnel for the Baltimore Ravens and Senior Vice President and General Manager of the Browns.

Barry Krauss, an all-American linebacker for the Crimson Tide, will head to the sidelines in his second year on the network. Krauss, who led Bama to the national championship in 1978, was a first round draft choice of the Baltimore Colts in 1979, playing in the league until 1991.

Tom Roberts will celebrate his 30th season on the network this fall. He hosts the CTSN pre-game show and the game broadcast from the press box.

Chris Stewart and Tyler Watts start and end the game-day broadcast on radio and handle the network's tape delay telecasts and live pay-per-view telecasts. Stewart is in his seventh season on the network, where he is also the voice of men's basketball and baseball. Watts, who starred at quarterback for Bama from 1999 to 2001, begins his second full season on the network.

The CTSN broadcast is produced by Tom Stipe, in his 26th season with the network. Stipe also serves as president of the Southeastern Conference Broadcasters Association. Butch Owens stands behind Gold every week as the spotter for his 20th year on the Bama crew. Brian Roberts begins his 11th year as the statistician for the broadcast. Jim Carabin oversees the Bama broadcasts in his role as general manager of Crimson Tide Sports Marketing.

This season, CTSN will dedicate its broadcasts to the memory of Bert Bank, who formed the netwok more than 50 years ago. The network's producer-emeritus, Mr. Bank passed away on June 22nd at the age of 94.

"THE NICK SABAN SHOW" and "HEY, COACH"

Bama fans again will have an opportunity to talk with Crimson Tide coach Nick Saban each Thursday night on his weekly radio show. Tom Roberts hosts the 60 minute coaches' call-in show following "Hey, Coach" each Thursday night at 6:30 p.m. The first broadcast is set for August 13. Fans can join the program by calling toll-free (877)-202-BAMA.

"THE NICK SABAN TV SHOW"

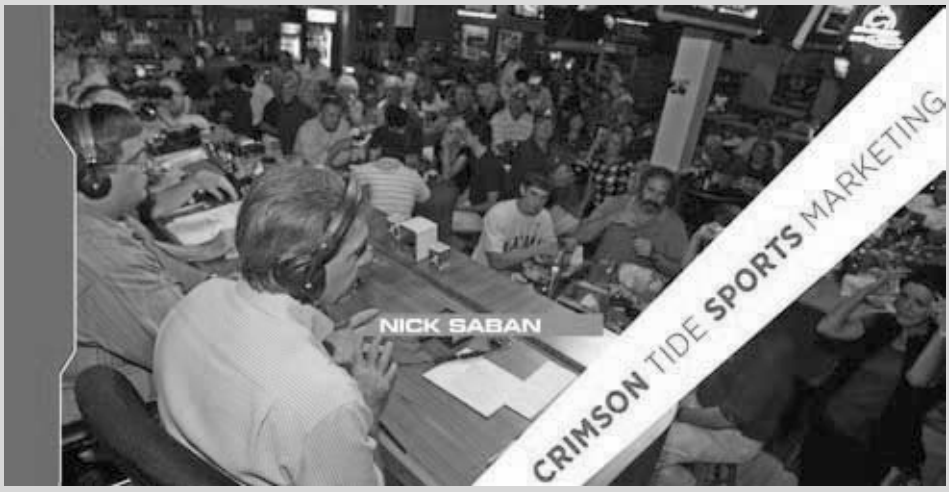

The Crimson Tide's head coach will guide Bama fans through the football season on his weekly television show, which is broadcast on stations in Alabama and the southeast. Jim Dunaway of Birmingham's CBS 42 will host the 30 minute TV show which features highlights, interviews and features with Bama players. Check local listings for the time and station in your area.

"CRIMSON TIDE TODAY"

Crimson Tide fans keep up with all of Bama's players and coaches each weekday on "Crimson Tide Today", a daily update on all University of Alabama athletic teams, with Tom Roberts.

"CRIMSON TIDE THIS WEEK"

From the start of fall practice through the end of the spring sports season, Bama fans keep up with all sports on "Crimson Tide This Week", a fast-paced 30-minute weekly TV show, hosted by Chris Stewart. Check local listings for the time and station in your area.
